Flash!

ASTRONAUT OF APO

Brother Lovell was an active and enthusiastic member of Beta Theta, University of Wisconsin, Madison, where he was initiated in 1947. He's also very proud of his Eagle Scout rank and so is our brother in Alpha Phi Omega, H. G. Zion, the Scout Executive of the Milwaukee County Council, under whom Commander Lovell received his advanced Scout training.

The development of men for leadership in the Space Age through Alpha Phi Omega takes on added significance with the news, just before press time, of Commander Lovell's selection as one of America's Astronauts.

"I never had a finer experience than I had in Alpha Phi Omega," the Commander commented in a long distance interview. Thousands of Alpha Phi Omega members share like sentiments.

The increasing maturity of the fraternity, it will be forty years old in 1965, reminds all of us of our continuing obligation to stress Leadership for Service in each and every chapter program.

Commander Lovell challenges us to ready ourselves for service in the Space Age, at home, abroad, and in outer space.

You can judge of the quality of these meals by recalling that recently the University hosted fifty-five

Things are shaping up in big style for the 17th National Convention of Alpha Phi Omega, to be held this December 27, 28 and 29 at Kansas City University, Kansas City, Missouri!

A program unparalleled in quality is being planned. Speakers include the Honorable H. Roe Bartle, Mayor of Kansas City and Past National President of Alpha Phi Omega, who will challenge the Fraternity to "Lead in Service!"

Of course, every Convention has its share of important business and ours is no exception. One full day of legislative sessions will include the election of Fraternity national officers and board members and action on all proposed constitutional amendments.

There will be a terrific training program. Sessions will be held on topics of interest to all chapter members, taught by men with outstanding experiences in each field. There will also be a National Service Exchange where your chapter can show off its success with a particular project or activity and where you can get ideas on projects that are working on the other campuses across the country.

Important and interesting speeches, wonderful fellowship, a chance to visit interesting Kansas City, an opportunity to help plan the future of your Fraternity—all these things are yours at the 17th National Convention.

HOMECOMING TEXAS TECH STYLE

By TONY GUSTWICK, Tech '62

Alumnus, Beta Sigma Chapter

When the fall of the year rolls around most peoples thoughts turn to football. This is true at the majority of colleges and universities in the United States. For the members of Beta Sigma Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, the thoughts immediately shift from football to Homecoming.

Since 1956 Beta Sigma has taken over the task of co-ordinating all Homecoming activities. Under an agreement between the Ex-Students Association, the Student Council and Alpha Phi Omega, the co-ordination of all plans concerning Homecoming is in the hands of Alpha Phi Omega men. Due to the growth of homecoming in recent years, additional organizations have been called in to assist in the preparation and execution of all Homecoming planning.

Homecoming at many schools means a time for the ex-students to return to the campus, in many cases to watch a football game. At Texas Tech, however, the annual Homecoming celebration is the largest all-college social event of the year, both for the former students and for the present students. Planning, supervising and co-ordinating the various events is a tremendous responsibility. The one organization on our campus that accepts the job and responsibility of staging a successful celebration is Beta Sigma Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega.

The Homecoming Committee is a committee made up of Alpha Phi Omega members and representatives of assisting organizations. The committee is appointed by the Homecoming Chairman with the approval of the Executive Director of the Ex-Students Association. Following Homecoming each fall, the chairman makes his recommendations concerning the chairman for the next year. Both the chairman and the assistant chairman are required to be members of Alpha Phi Omega. The Student Council acts as an advisory committee for Alpha Phi Omega and the Homecoming Committee. A member of the Student Council is a member of the Homecoming Committee and acts as secretary.

The Homecoming Committee is made up of 10 standing committees of which seven are headed by Beta Sigma members. Two organizations which assist A-Phi-O in the planning of the celebration are the Saddle Tramps—a school spirit organization which handles the pre-game Pep Rally and Bonfire, and the Womens Service Organization—these charming ladies handle the registration booths for Exes to register their attendance and serve as hostesses for a free luncheon given for the visiting Exes.

Frankie Claunts
1962 Homecoming Chairman
Member, Beta Sigma

The Texas Tech Union handles the Homecoming Dance for the students. Name bands such as Buddy Morrow, Woody Herman and others are usually in attendance.

The remaining committees are handled by A-Phi-O. They are:

- (1) Homecoming Queen Election—This committee sends letters to all campus organizations for nominees for the Homecoming Queen and conducts two elections. The first election is to narrow the field to five finalists and the second determines who the Queen is. (The name of the winner remains secret until the coronation of the Queen which takes place after the Pep Rally and Bonfire the Friday night preceding the football game on Saturday.)
- (2) The Coronation of the Queen—This committee sees that proper lighting arrangements are made, a ramp-way is built, a proper backdrop is installed and all arrangements are well planned. The five finalists are presented. An organ plays each girl's favorite song as she appears with her escort and walks down the steps and out on a red carpet through the crowd and back to the front. The Queen is announced and crowned. This is a very impressive ceremony and is patterned after the Miss America Contest.

- (3) Campus Lighting—This Committee is in charge of lighting luminarias on the campus. A luminaria is a paper bag with a candle set in sand on the inside. 3,000 of these are placed around the main streets and entrances of the campus and are lit just before the coronation of the Queen.
- (4) The Homecoming Parade—This is one of the biggest and most important committee assignments. Letters are sent to all organizations to find out how many floats or cars are to be in the parade. The representatives of each organization meet and make the rules for the floats or entry. A theme is chosen and all floats endeavor to stay within the theme. Approximately 30 floats make up the bulk of the parade with the administrative officials, College Board of Directors, Queen and attendants, ROTC units, and automobiles making up the rest. The parade covers a 31 block course through downtown Lubbock and back to the campus. This usually takes place on Saturday morning prior to the football game.
- (5) Half-time Show—This committee is in charge of announcing the winners of the homecoming parade and residence hall decorations at the half-time ceremonies during the homecoming football game. Trophies are presented to the winners. The Homecoming Queen and her attendants are also presented again at this time.

NATIONAL PROJECT ... AID TO PEACE CORPS

by JOSEPH SCANLON,
National Executive Secretary

Alpha Phi Omega now has a National Project which all chapters are urged to undertake this Fall—Aid to the Peace Corps.

This national effort, to put at the disposal of those in need overseas, dedicated and trained men and women, devoted to Service, requires on every college campus an equally devoted group of Service minded men to assist the Campus Peace Corps Coordinator with his many tasks.

Alpha Phi Omega's National Executive Board, after thoughtful consideration of requests that we help the Peace Corps, especially the campus coordinator, was all the more moved to adopt this as our National Project when it learned that as long ago as last February an ever increasing number of our brethren were serving actively overseas as Peace Corpsmen. Here are some of them, their former chapters, and their assignments:

Robert B. Bjerre, Alpha Psi, Lehigh University,
Tanganyika

David W. Christenson, Beta Theta, University of Wisconsin, the Philippines
Willie Afreda Douglas, Kappa Delta, Florida A&M, West Pakistan
Angelo T. Randazzo, Lambda Pi, La Salle College, Philadelphia
Gary L. Schultze, Beta Iota, New York University, St. Lucia
Joseph S. Ten, Zeta, Leland Stanford, Ethiopia

Nearly every college campus in the United States now has a Peace Corps Coordinator. You can assist him in many ways. First, contact him and discuss the needs on your campus. He receives literature of many kinds. He must share this with the campus, which involves distribution, bulletin board postings, meeting room arrangements, and above all, a student-to-student conversation about the needs, the opportunities, and the challenge the Peace Corps faces in its Service assignments.

No campus organization is in better position or is better qualified to discuss Service than is Alpha Phi Omega. Help your Peace Corps Coordinator. Give him an opportunity to tell you his story and his needs.

The time is now. The place is your campus. Let's go, A Phi O.

PLEDGE CLASS DEDICATED TO HON. H. ROE BARTLE

The Fall Pledge Class will be dedicated to Hon. H. Roe Bartle, Past National President of Alpha Phi Omega and Mayor of Kansas City, Missouri, one of America's largest cities.

Dr. Bartle served as National President from 1931 to 1946. During this period of depression and world war the Fraternity increased from 18 to 109 chapters and the number of initiates from 606 when he took office to 12,691 at the close of his presidency.

Brother Bartle is one of America's foremost speakers and is in constant demand by civic, fraternal and business groups.

He is a national figure in Rotary, in Scouting and in governmental affairs. He serves as a director in many corporations. He is a veteran of the First World War and a Past President of the National War Dads, organized during the Second World War. His active and energetic life has included ownership and publication of several newspapers, the presidency of Missouri Valley College, Marshall, Missouri, the founding and direction of the American Humanities program. During the Second World War he was one of the leaders in the Jackson County War Finance efforts and was drafted by President Harry S. Truman for special assignments.

Hon. H. ROE BARTLE

Dr. Bartle was elected Mayor of Kansas City in 1955 and re-elected in 1959. Just recently he represented the city and the midwest in a Telstar conversation with the Mayor of Dublin, Ireland.

His tremendous energy is only equaled by his continuing interest in and support of Alpha Phi Omega.

The National Convention

There will be some limited housing available in the men's dorms at the University of Kansas City and Rockhurst College at the $3.00 per night rate. Preference for this limited space will be given to Convention operating personnel and delegates. No women can be accommodated on either campus.

Requests for space at the University or the College must be made directly to the National office, care of the National Secretary, 1100 Waltower Building, Kansas City, Missouri.

Ample parking for cars exists on the grounds of the two Universities.

HAVE YOU REGISTERED YOUR SLIDE RULE?

By DOUGLAS TREVETT,
President, Epsilon Iota, Mississippi State University

Engineering students at Mississippi State University have one less worry these days, thanks to Epsilon Iota Chapter

They no longer have the problem of losing their slide rules and having no positive means of ever getting them back.

Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, has made it possible for these prospective engineers to feel less uncomfortable about the loss of their most prized possession.

The chapter has inaugurated a program of engraving a five-digit number of slide rules and registering these numbers with the School of Engineering.

It costs the engineering students 25 cents to have this number engraved, but it could save them about $21, the price of another one. It's not a foolproof system, but it does give them a chance to recover their slide rules if they're lost and turned in to the dean's office.

H. P. Neal, assistant dean of the School of Engineering, said that it was the first time any such method has been employed at the University.

Prof. Richard Herron, faculty advisor of Alpha Phi Omega, explained that all money collected from this project will be used for campus improvements.

"We've had pretty good response from engineering students. They think it's a good idea. It provides a permanent record so even if a student registered this year and he loses his rule three years from now his number will still be in the dean's office," he said.

An Epsilon Iota chapter member is shown engraving a five-digit identification number on a slide rule of a Mississippi State University student. Here's an unusual service project your campus may need.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN REACTIVATES

Beta Theta, University of Wisconsin, Madison, has been reactivated, largely through the leadership of Richard Tombaugh, of the university's dorm staff. Brother Tombaugh, an alumnus of Alpha Gamma, Purdue University, is shown in this sitting at the far right. The ritual team was headed by Manfred O. Aws, Jr., National Treasurer and Sectional Chairman for Wisconsin.

NATIONAL EXECUTIVE BOARD MEMBERS HONORED

National Executive Board Members of Alpha Phi Omega, constantly engaged in building and expanding the Fraternity, are happy to learn of honors and advancements recently conferred on some of their own members.

Dr. Glen T. Nygreen, Dean of Student Life, Kent State University, has been elected National Vice President of the National Association of Student Personnel Advisors. This influential association includes the Deans of Student Life and Deans of Men of America's largest colleges and universities. Dr. Nygreen heads Alpha Phi Omega's National Committee on University and College Relationships.

Mr. Robert J. Hilliard, of the Dean of Men's staff at Texas Tech, Lubbock, Texas, has joined the staff of the Dean of Student Life at Washington State University, Pullman. Brother Hilliard is a Past President of the chapter at the University of Washington, Seattle, and is National Chairman of the Service Projects Committee for Alpha Phi Omega.

Mr. Zenon C. R. Hansen, Lansing, Michigan, was awarded the Order of the Silver Buffalo, the highest honor conferred by the Boy Scouts of America on volunteer leaders, at the organization's annual national meeting last June in Portland, Oregon.

Mr. A. G. Spizzirri, Kansas City, Missouri, has been named Assistant to the President of Ursuline College, Louisville, Kentucky. He is a past National Treasurer and is the Coordinator for the December 27-29, 1962, National Convention.

President Cook named chairmen for the four standing committees as follows: Publicity, Mr. Lienhardt; Service, Mr. Ward; Finance, Mr. Mark; and Expansion, Mr. Hassler.

KAPPA SIGMA'S TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Kappa Sigma, Sacramento State College, observed its tenth anniversary June 1, 1962, with pomp and ceremony.

Mayor James B. McKinney issued a proclamation designating June 1 as "Alpha Phi Omega day." The Hon. Edmund G. Brown, Governor of California, presented the chapter a Service Recognition plaque. A sumptuous banquet was served at the Rancho Villa, with Dr. Lester R. Steig, Western National Vice-President, representing the National fraternity and Thomas L. Allen, Employee Relations Manager for Safeway Stores, as the guest speaker. Mayor McKinney was present and so were charter members and alumni and Dr. Guy A. West, President of Sacramento State College.

The chapter's service to youth and community was given recognition by the Mayor and by Merle J. Krulish, Scout Executive of the Golden Empire Council, Sacramento. William R. Bonner, Alumni Secretary, served as banquet Chairman.

Governor Edmund G. Brown of California holds a Service Recognition plaque commending Kappa Sigma Chapter, Sacramento State College, which he presented to William R. Bonner, Alumni Secretary, and Roy G. Bradley, Presidential Representative, on the occasion of the Chapter's tenth anniversary, June 1, 1962.

- (6) Publicity and Signs—This committee is in charge of making all signs and placards announcing the celebration.
- (7) Homecoming Queen Float—Recently the members of Alpha Phi Omega have built a float for the Homecoming Queen and her court.

Homecoming grows each year and with it grows Beta Sigma. Wayne James, Executive Director of the Texas Tech Ex-Students Association and an Advisor of Beta Sigma Chapter, has this to say about the fraternity,

"Even though other organizations assist in Homecoming, it is the members of Alpha Phi Omega that are the real 'unsung heroes' of Homecoming. It is due to their untiring efforts that Texas Tech's Homecoming is a reality and not just a plan. It is they who provide the manpower after the Committee has outlined the plans and the procedure. The Ex-Students of Texas Tech find themselves deeply indebted to the members of Alpha Phi Omega and the Homecoming Committee for providing them a memorable and outstanding weekend each fall."

A PHI O SERVICE! . .

Mu Alpha, Georgetown University, raises funds for an orphanage through an "Ugliest Prof" contest. The photo on the right shows Brothers Dick Weiker and Cy Fazik at the voting booth, eager to receive "offerings." The contest was a big success, the chapter reports.

Iota Tau, St. Olaf College, presented its ninth $100 scholarship recently to the college. Shown making the presentation to President C. M. Granskou is Chapter President Neil Hanson. The chapter membership and advisors shared in the ceremony.

.. SERVICE!

.... SERVICE!

• SCHOLARSHIPS • SCHOOL PUBLICITY • SERVICE GUIDES

Delta Mu, Kansas State College, Pittsburg, joined with the YMCA in erecting two huge service signs, similar to one shown at right, to advertise the university. The sign cost more than $750. The gathering took place at the dedication ceremony in late May. Jerry McNew is Chapter President.

Anyone for a Science Fair? Quite a few said "yes" at Mississippi State University where men of Epsilon Iota Chapter served as registrars and guides. The registration group, left to right, includes Billy Goudelock, Dan Artman, George Flowers, Jim Balgord, Harold Hodges.

Beta Psi, Southeast Missouri State College, raised more than $550 for the St. Francois Hospital and Cape County School for Retarded Children through its aptly named Spring "Ugly Man and Miss Beautiful Contest." Contestants are shown in the photo on the right. The chapter publishes an annual student directory for the college.
