Spring 1994

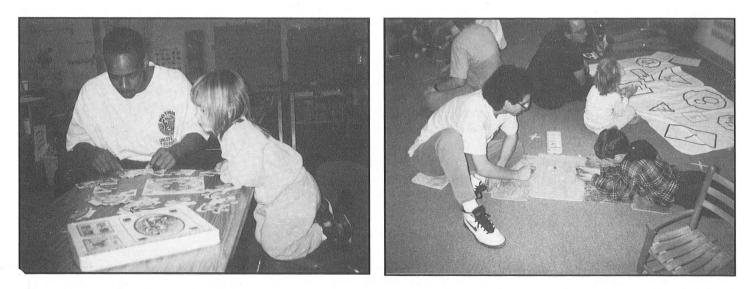

The nation responds

Over 100 of our chapters from across the country, responded to the request of the 1993 Fall Pledge Class Namesake, Earle M. Herbert, to provide service to children (see fall 1993 Torch & Trefoil, page 3). This was one of the largest known responses in a unified effort to have the fall pledge class concentrate on one area of service. Listed in this issue on pages 9-11 is a sampling of the projects reported.

You are the future

By now you have been initiated into your chapter, but you are still the "new" Alpha Phi Omega. Your chapter has just been infused with new, well-trained members, full of enthusiasm and energy. You are very important – to your chapter. Without you, your chapter would have been weaker, less responsive to our principles of Leadership, Friendship, and Service. So, the experiences that you have enjoyed must be continuously renewed in your chapter. You become the responsible future of your chapter. The experiences you have enjoyed must be shared; the needs you have answered must be extended; the good you have accomplished must be renewed. Your present and future efforts in making your chapter the best it can be depends on you!

— Earle M. Herbert, January, 1994

The Fall '93 Pledge Class of Alpha Beta Nu at Behrend College in Erie, Pennsylvania, visited the Behrend Day Care Center in Erie, spending quality time with children. The pledges acted out the story of "Little Red Riding Hood," read books and played games with the children. A written comment by the pledges was returned to Earle. "Thanks for the great idea of doing a project with kids. It gave us a chance to see our past and gave us the feeling that we really helped children. We have adopted the Behrend Day Care Center as a semester project."

Geography was never one of my strong suits. So, when I agreed to attend the Section 91 Conference this past February at East Stroudsburg University, I had no idea that my journey would take me within five miles of Lafayette College, the site of Alpha Chapter.

Driving home on Sunday morning, I was overcome by what we in the legal profession call an irresistible impulse. I detoured to Easton, Pennsylvania.

On a hill overlooking this picturesque village, I found the college. The ground was snow covered, and the trees barren. I wondered if that's what it was like on December 16, 1925.

One quarter of the way around the circle at the center of campus, I found Hogg Hall, a building constructed in 1901 that used to be known as Brainerd Hall. I parked illegally and stood for a moment in front of this gothic brick building. Except for the name inscribed above the door and the squirrel exploring the gutter, I knew it had not changed in sixty-nine years.

I walked up the steps, the same steps that our Founders climbed many times, including that very special day in December, 1925. Although I was not sure what I was looking for or what I would find, I tried the door and it was unlocked.

Directly inside on the right, just outside the inter-faith chapel, was a plaque commemorating the founding of Alpha Phi Omega and listing our Founders. I stared at it for much longer than it took to read it.

As I ascended the mahogany stairs to the second floor, I wondered if the fourteen undergraduates and two advisors had touched the same banister that I was holding. I tried to visualize how the interior of the building looked back then.

Could the Founders have any way of knowing that two National Presidents of Alpha Phi Omega had recently made this pilgrimage — "Chato," my good friend and colleague from APO of the Philippines, had been here two months earlier.

As I left, knowing that I had to get home, I experienced a peculiar sadness and wished that I could st longer. I felt I was leaving old frienc. to whom I owed a great deal. I wanted them to know what they had started, what it had become, and how much we appreciated their vision.

I wanted to tell them Alpha Phi Omega was the largest, most caring, most inclusive collegiate service organization in the world. I wanted them to know we had been good and faithful servants. I wanted them to know how many actives and alumni had worked so hard to keep the dream alive.

Of course, none of my wishes were granted in any way that I could know. Yet, I felt an inner peace, a mystical serenity. I had been to Alpha Chapter and was renewed by its spirit.

You know what else? I had the distinct feeling that our Founders already knew all that I wanted to te them. I'll bet they shouted "Righ. on!" when H. Roe Bartle admonished us to "Carry On!"

Dwayne Hearn's committee reaches out

National President Jerry Schroedhas established a National Committee on Diversity/Multicultural Advancement and has appointed Dwayne A. Hearn as its chairperson.

Brother Hearn is a graduate student at San Jose State University and a member of Rho Gamma Chapter. He has degrees in Black Studies and Economics, and is working on an M.A. in Speech Communication.

Dwayne is currently a resident advisor for university housing at San Jose State University. He is responsible for building a community atmosphere in the residence halls and developing creative programs on a regular basis which include educational and social events.

"The response to our workshops

New Legal Counsel

Richard F. Schmidt, a partner in the Kansas City, Missouri, law firm of Hammett & Schmidt has een confirmed as new legal counsel for the National Fraternity. Dick was an active brother in the Gamma Xi Chapter at Rockhurst College in Kansas City. Additionally he had close ties with the National Office when he was a student, as he worked as the mail room clerk under National Executive Director Sid North. Dick is still involved in service. He serves on several Boards of Directors for charitable organizations in the greater KC area, including the Heart of America Boy Scout Council.

And, I came away convinced that hey want us to do today what they did in 1925 — always act in Alpha Phi Omega's best future interests. That is the only way we can repay them for the extraordinary gift they on diversity has been very positive all across the country," said President Schroeder, "and I think most people service."

Through education and marketing, the Committee will encourage diversity in our chapters and within the alumni volunteer structure by raising awareness and reducing misconceptions, creating outreach activities, and offering practical advice to chapters on how to achieve greater inclusiveness.

"Alpha Phi Omega, through its three-fold program, helps to prepare students for the workplace of life," says Dwayne, "and that workplace is diverse. People of all races and backgrounds must be able to work together in all contexts, and what better place to start than with college students who have dedicated themselves to serving others."

Persons interested in helping this new Committee should write the National Executive Director at the National Office.

Board of Directors meeting

and include them

Action taken at the winter board meeting February 12, 1994:

- Endorsed a 1-year regional administrative review imposed on Eta Mu Chapter at Utica College of Syracuse University, Utica, New York, by the Regional Director.
- Approved the development of a formalized structure for a national alumni association.
- Changed National Board Policy to allow a simple majority vote of the Regional Alumni Council to elect the Regional Alumni Voting Delegate when a quorum is present.
- Unanimously awarded Robert Barkhurst a National Certificate of Appreciation for his hard work and dedication in the publication of our National History Book.
- Confirmed the President's appointment of Dresden Skees of Gamma Kappa Chapter at Texas Christian University, as the 1994 National Convention Chair.
- Approved Deloitte & Touche of Kansas City to conduct the 1994 Audit.
- Approved new charters for: Central Washington University in Ellensburg, Washington

New Mexico State University in Carlsbad, New Mexico

- Approved a new National Friendship Award (awarded at National Conventions) to be called the "Earle M. Herbert National Friendship Award."
- Approved the appointment of the 1994 Fall Pledge Class Namesake Committee.

gave to us and the world.

It is fitting that, as I write of my visit to Lafayette College, this edition of the Torch & Trefoil also honors those who are Alpha Phi Omega's Torchbearers. Without them, and countless others who give of their prayers, time, money and skills, our Fraternity would not be what it is. To all of you, I send hearfelt thanks and I am confident our Founders do too.

President of APO Philippines visits USA

Felix "Chato" J. Marinas Jr., National President of APC Philippines, recently visited the United States and literally went coast-to-coast. He was able to visit Lafayette College, home of Alpha Chapter. He also attended the Region X Conference where he and National President Jerry Schroeder were able to renew fraternal ties and discuss plans to put in place an APO international council.

President Schroeder invited Brothers of the Philippines to attend the National Convention in Dallas and President Marinas likewise extended an invitation to American Brothers to attend the 1995 Philippine National Convention to be held in Zamboanga City, Mindanao, Philippines.

While in the country, President Marinas visited Philippine alumni associations in Northern California, Southern California, Mid-West, East Coast and Texas. Additionally he conducted a campaign to upgrade the national office in the Philippines. He received almost $10,000 in donations and equipment. He plans to return to the USA in December to attend the National Convention and visit the National Office.

Regards and a cordial . . . SALUTE!

Many famous people are recognized for their style of using a particular word or phrase in salutation. And, we recognize them instantly. Well, Alpha Phi Omega has a "famous" brother who is instantly recognized whenever he writes a letter. The title of this article is how he ends each and every message.

The photo shows Brother George F. Cahill (on the right) receiving recognition from Brother Lorin Jurvis, chairman of the Endowment Trustees, for his many years of service and leadership to the Endowment. That tells you why Brother Cahill is being recognized, but more explanation is needed to tell you who he really is within our Fraternity. George became a Brother of Alpha Gamma at Purdue University in 1946. He was elected chapter president in 1947. At the 1948 National Convention he was appointed to the Board as editor of the Torch & Trefoil. He never stopped serving. In 1964 he was awarded the National Distinguished Service Key and in 1968 he was elected Life Member of the Board.

In the early 1970s he worked with other Brothers to formalize an endowment for the Fraternity. In 1977 that work was brought to fruition. Since that time George has given much time and energy to the growth of the endowment. Beside serving as a member of the endowment for the past twenty-five years he also served as Chairman for a number of those years. Today he continues as an active member of the National Board of Directors. On this occasion, recognizing his continuing efforts and enthusiasm, we take the opportunity to return a well-deserved salutation to him ... George ... SALUTE!

Commitment to service outside Alpha Phi Omega

by Fred C. Heismeyer National Alumni Chair

During the 1992 National Convention a mission statement for the alumni program within Alpha Phi Omega was adopted. The statement says:

> The mission and purpose of the alumni program of Alpha Phi Omega, National Service Fraternity, shall be to encourage support of Alpha Phi Omega, National Service Fraternity; to serve, inform, and involve alumni of the Fraternity so as to foster interaction and friendship among Alpha Phi Omega members of all ages; and to promote civic and professional service by Alpha Phi Omega alumni.

The adopted mission statement sets the course for alumni involvement for years to come. Many important commitments are evident in the mission statement. The Fraternity commits to develop an alumni program that actively seeks to serve the alumni. And, the alumni of the Fraternity commit to actively supporting the Fraternity's primary mission and programs.

'to promote civic and professional service by Alpha Phi Omega alumni'

The focus of this article is on one bart of the mission statement, the last phrase; "to promote civic and professional service by Alpha Phi Omega alumni," and the adopted Focus 21 Goal that reads:

By January 1995, an ongoing system will be implemented to provide, at effective intervals, all active and alumni members with information that will encourage them to support the mission of the Fraternity as alumni and to practice throughout their professional and civic lives the leadership, philosophical, and ethical tenets of Alpha Phi Omega.

All too often when addressing alumni of the Fraternity, the needs within our own organization become the priority, including leadership and financial needs. However, seldom discussed is the broader role of our continued commitment to service service to our individual communities and professions outside of Alpha Phi Omega.

Alpha Phi Omega provides leadership skills that serve us well through a future lifetime commitment of service. Productive organizational management, results-oriented goal-setting, effective meeting and committee operations, competent program planning, and capable evaluation are but a few of the skills learned through participation in our Fraternity. Alpha Phi Omega provides its membership with leadership programs that include the Chapter Presidents Workshop, Leadership Development Workshop, and the Sectional Staff Seminar. The Fraternity publishes and provides leadership guides and resources for chapter officers and other key leaders. And, the Fraternity provides opportunities for active leadership at every level of operations where members may continue to learn and utilize their leadership skills.

However, community service and leadership does not end when you leave campus. Continued commitment to community service continues by reaching out to community and professional organizations outside of the Fraternity. Use the skills that Alpha Phi Omega taught you and become involved with a civic service organization, your community's educational system, your professional association, your church's outreach program, or a national organization that promotes a cause you wish to further. The opportunities for continued service are endless. Your talents were learned in, and developed through, Alpha Phi Omega. Now expand and use those talents to benefit others in your community and profession beyond the confines of the college campus.

> Use the skills that Alpha Phi Omega taught you . . . for service

Alpha Phi Omega members are not recognized by a shirt that has the Fraternity's name, a pin we wear, or a membership certificate hanging on our wall. Alpha Phi Omega members are recognized by the community service we provide and the leadership we offer. Your continued commitment is needed now more than ever. Keep our cardinal principles of Leadership, Friendship, and Service alive through your participation in community service outside of Alpha Phi Omega!

TORCHBEARERS

In this issue of the Torch & Trefoil, we recognize our donors. Those Brothers giving a minimum of $50 are recognized as Torchbearers. Those Brothers giving $100 are recognized as Silver Torchbearers, those giving $250 are recognized as Gold Torchbearers, those giving $500 to $2,500 are recognized as Torchbearers and Founders Circle. Levels of donors are listed by chapter.

All donors are important and necessary to the operation of the Fraternity. It is through them that Leadership, Friendship, and Service are kept alive on our campuses. They invite you to join them in their commitment.

Gamma Theta

Throughout the year the Brothers of Gamma Theta complete many hours of service in the Boulder area. One of their ongoing projects, which requires dedicated member participation, has been a great success. The members work at Samaritan House, a homeless shelter in Denver. The shelter serves homeless single men and women and families. The program provides immediate shelter. In exchange, those involved must search for employnent, save money, and enroll their hildren (if appropriate) in a school. In the photo Gamma Theta members are shown participating in last fall's "Playroom Peoples' Picnic." The chapter has committed to working at the shelter twice a month. For further information contact: Chapter President, Gamma Theta Chapter, University of Colorado, University Memorial Center, Room 421, Boulder, CO 80309-0207.

At Texas Christian University in Ft. Worth, Texas, the Pledges of Gamma Kappa visited the Cumberline House, a home for children that have been abandoned or removed from their home. The pledges joined in games like soccer, twister, and played the piano while the children sang songs. It was a really great experience.

Pledges of . . .

Chi Gamma — James Madison University — Participated in the "Adopt a School Program." They went to a local elementary school playground in the Harrisonburg, Virginia, area to paint all playground equipment, repaint the asphalt playground, and generally clean up the area. They had a great time.

Epsilon Zeta — Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute — Raked leaves at the Sunnyside Youth Center. Pledges and Brothers also worked and assisted the caretaker with general maintenance. Sunny-side is a youth camp in Troy, New York.

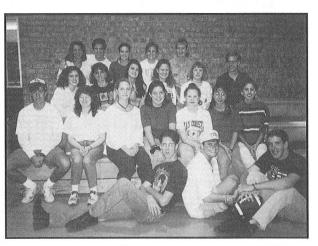

Nu Psi — Montclair State College — Cosponsored a Christmas party with refreshments for 90 children in the Patterson, New Jersey, area.

Theta Zeta — University of New Hampshire — Baby-sat for the faculty and neighbors in the local residential area. Watching movies, coloring and playing games with the children was a worthwhile project.

Mu Chi — Indiana University of Pennsylvania — Held a Halloween hayride in cooperation with Big Brothers and Big Sisters in the scenic countryside of Indiana, Pennsylvania, and afterward roasted hot dogs on an open fire and drank hot cocoa.

Sigma Nu — Delaware Valley College — Participated in a Haunted House pro-

Last fall a "love bundle" project was conducted by the Pledges of Alpha Eta at the University of Missouri in Kansas City, Missouri. The pledger raised money, then prepared packages of neces ties for children that are taken from abusive homes in emergency situations and cannot take anything with them. These prepared packages offer some comfort in a time of severe stress for the youngster.

ject organized by the alumni and student scholarship office. The chapter "haunted" the horticulture building where thousands of youthful visitors fell victim t witches, ghosts and goblins. The eve raised $8,000 in three days.

Mu Upsilon —Washington and Jefferson College — Worked with the Center for Organ Recovery and Education in Washington, Pennsylvania. After learning about this program in a seminar, the pledges distributed pamphlets and donor cards to the student body at Washington and Jefferson. The pledges felt that this is a project where there is a continuing need, as generally speaking, the lack of information, as well as misinformation, about the organ donation program is apparent nationwide.

Alpha Pi — Westminster College — Sponsored a 3 on 3 basketball tournament at $8 per team to play. The pledges also had a concession stand with all proceeds going to the Boy Scouts. They also held a blind date dance with a talent show performing "Phantom of the Opera."

Iota Upsilon — Slippery Rock University — Supported Girl Scout Day by organizing a Girl Scout badge day. Th pledges helped the young Girl Scouts complete requirements for various badges.

Zeta Lambda — University of Toledo — Coordinated a project at "The Friendly

The Pledges of Beta Eta Chapter at the University of Missouri in Columbia, Missouri, prepared and conducted a Halloween party and dance for the mentally disadvantaged youth at the Woodhaven Center in Columbia. The pledges noted that the party had a positive effect on the participants as well as the pledges. They know they can make a difference through service.

The Pledges of Alpha Gamma Kappa at Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas, got involved in their childrens' project last December. The pledges banded together to assist a local food and toy bank in Georgetown, called The Caring Place. They sorted presents, items of clothing and toys. The project lasted eight hours with the whole pledge class working.

Center," in downtown Toledo, where children can spend the weekend working on various arts and crafts. The pledges ill continue this project for the next two arters.

Alpha Gamma — Purdue University — Bad weather turned an outdoor project into an indoor project. The pledges cleaned everything from bathrooms to the kitchen. Camp Cary, near Lafayette, Indiana, will be ready for youth groups this spring, thanks to the Pledges of Alpha Gamma.

Alpha Gamma Lambda — Albion College — Supported a "Quarters for Kids" project. The pledge class decorated jars and containers and placed them in the dormitories, athletic facility, and food places around the campus to collect money for the Prospect Place Family Shelter located in Albion, Michigan.

Epsilon Beta — Central Michigan University — Worked with the school Admissions office to write and encourage young Native American students to stay in school. They contacted students selected by the Admissions office in conjunction with teachers at the Chippewa Indian Reservation. APO Brothers stay in ouch with their contacts by inviting them to programs or planned events at the CMU campus at Mt. Pleasant, Michigan.

Mu — Indiana University — Held a canned food drive during a three-day campaign. The pledges collected over two thousand pounds of food and $250.

Omicron — University of Iowa — Organized a Hallowen party for the terminally ill children at the University of Iowa Hospital and Clinic. They also held a "Twister" party. Entrance fee for the party was a donation of canned goods, all of which went to a local emergency housing project.

Beta Rho — University of Arkansas — Cleaned up a "stretch" of highway in the Devils Den National Park after which they completed the weekend with a pledge fellowship camp out.

Xi Beta — University of Nebraska at Kearney — Collected food for the Jubilee Center in Kearney, Nebraska. The center then distributed the food to needy families in the Kearney area.

Alpha Omega — Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine — Raised money from physicians, faculty and staff of the school to sponsor a shopping spree and Christmas party for underprivileged children in Kirksville, Missouri. The pledges coordinated the project with the Department of Family Services and the Kirksville Fire Department.

Pi — Kansas State University — Volunteered at the Manhattan, Kansas, zoo to decorate for the zoo's annual "Winter Wildlight." This is a fundraising event for the zoo. The pledges put up lights and other decorations, and worked in the concession stand.

Gamma Alpha — University of Washington — Supported BSA Cub Pack Activities Day in the Seattle area. They visited an inner-city community center. BSA provided the materials. The pledges provided the program, which included education for parents, organized games, races, and crafts.

Kappa Sigma — Cal State University — Hosted a Halloween party for about 20-30 energetic 4- and 5-year-olds at the Sacramento County Children's Receiving Home. The SCCRH is a place where children can go whose parents have problems with the law. The chapter provided candy, party games, and activities to entertain the children.

Zeta — Stanford University — Decorated and donated school supplies to children of families who are in the process of moving from homelessness to permanent housing.

Zeta Omicron — Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo — Conducted a toy drive. They asked local merchants for support through donations or gifts for low income families in San Luis Obispo. The approximately 130 toys collected were later given to children at a party given by the Housing Authority in which the chapter helped with the pre-party decorations.

"Just a note of thanks for the excellent effort on publishing the National Fraternity's history book. It is fantastic!" — Michael J. Schrader, Section 67 Chair "I would like to thank you for the recent copy of the Alpha Phi Omega history. It has been a long wait, but one I feel was well worth it. It's given me an opportunity to learn more about the individuals who helped to found the fraternity, as well as distinguished members over the past 68 years." — Bryan D. Belcher 1994 is a Convention year. Next December delegates from our chapters will gather in Dallas to make the decisions that guide Alpha Phi Omega into the twenty-first century.

National Conventions are unique, wonderful and uplifting experiences for many reasons. But, most of all, they are the vehicle through which you students govern your Fraternity. Alpha Phi Omega is singular in this regard — a national student organization governed by students.

You decide what your Fraternity should look like, what it should feel like, what it should do, and what it shouldn't do.

You elect your volunteer leaders and, thereby, define its vision.

In Dallas, many significant choices will be made. It might be a compromise on the Toast Song, a change to our Ritual, an alteration of our membership standards, a long range plan, a national alumni association. And beneath every choice is an ideal, a dream, to be realized.

Every decision must be rendered not on what is best for us as individuals, but what is best for Alpha Phi Omega — not what is best for today, but what is best for tomorrow.

Alpha Phi Omega is not our chapter. It is all chapters. It is not us. It is all its students — past, present and, most importantly, future.

We will not always agree on exactly what to do. But our differences can be enriching if we first establish what we have in common: an agreement to look for solutions and an acknowledgement that we all are genuinely interested in the long-term best interests of Alpha Phi Omega. In this way, we stitch our differences together in the colorful quilt of friendship.

And, because all the choices are made by students, and because each choice translates visions into reality, there exists a great responsibility to Alpha Phi Omega and to those we serve to participate in this democratic process.

Every chapter has an obligation to be represented. Every delegate has an obligation to be informed, prepared and open-minded. The gift we hold in trust for those who will follow us demands no less.

It needs our leadership now, f it is we who find ourselves representing Alpha Phi Omega in all of its majesty and promise when it is time to speak and act on its behalf.

It is we who are asked for the highest form of service to our Fraternity and, as true friends to those who will follow us, we must nurture, shape and strengthen the APO of tomorrow without hesitation or reservation.

What we do at the Convention will be our gift to them. It must be given unselfishly and thoughtfully. It must be worthy of us and of those to whom we send it. Above all, it must be given by all of us.

Let all chapters resolve now to be represented in Dallas. Let us begin now to plan how we will get our delegates there, even if we must raise money to do so. Let us inform ourselves of the issues, and, most of al' let us dream about what APO real means to us and what it can mean to the students of tomorrow.

Then, let us follow that dream to Dallas!

Confessions of a two-timing pledge by Jack A. McKenzie, Member of the J. Franklin S. Mc-Mullan (Fall '73) and Earle M. Herbert (Fall '93) Pledge Classes

In the fall of 1993 a remarkable event occurred in my life: I pledged Alpha Phi Omega National Service Fraternity.

Sure, a few thousand other people also pledged the Fraternity last fall, but the circumstances of my pledgeship were a bit different from most. I was already a Brother. In fact, I was a 38-year-old alumnus, chapter advisor and member of the National Board of Directors.

But I became a pledge all over again and lived a challenging honor that I will forever cherish.

It happened because the fall of 3 marked my 20th year in the Fraternity, since I pledged the first time during the fall of 1973. To help me celebrate this milestone, my chapter, Gamma Lambda at Clemson University, invited me to pledge again.

"We could just give you a plaque," said chapter president Jeff Kolb, instigator of the pledge-again plot, "but we figured you'd want to do something more, something really special."

And so, on Sept. 2, 1993, 12 rushees and I became Gamma Lambda's second consecutive Earle M. Herbert Pledge Class. (Earle was Gamma Lambda's spring pledge namesake as well as the National Fraternity's fall honoree.)

Being in a pledge class named for Earle Herbert, one of my longtime heroes and role models, was a thrill I can't begin to describe. The thrill was intensified manyfold when during ne pledge induction ceremony I curned around to meet my Big Brother and found none other than Jeff Kolb, not only the chapter's president, but also a dear friend and excellent Brother. During the next 10 weeks, I attended the Sunday night pledge meetings, took the pledge tests (earned a 100-plus average, thank you), arranged personal visits with the Brothers and collected their signatures in my pledge manual, participated in chapter service projects, helped with the pledge service project, sold programs at Clemson football games (a chapter fund-raiser), made my Big Brother a commemorative paddle, and took my turn for the monthly pledge evaluations and final pledge interviews.

In short, I did everything expected of a pledge in Gamma Lambda.

> Pledging is but a membership process leading to something much more wonderful, much more significant, much more demanding...

And I must have done okay, because on Nov. 11, 1993, I was reinitiated into the Brotherhood of Alpha Phi Omega.

It just doesn't get any better than that.

Looking back on this experience, two profound thoughts and two personal highlights come to mind.

The first profound thought is that pledging is hard work. It was tough at times making all those meetings and projects and arranging all those one-on-one appointments.

However, the results were definitely worth the effort, for the meetings were important and necessary, the projects were fun and rewarding, and I thoroughly enjoyed the time I spent with each Brother.

The other profound thought is that a lot of assumptions are made about pledges — about what they know or should know, do or don't do. Being "on the other side" for a semester reminded me that pledging is truly a learning adventure that at times can be confusing. As a Brother, I'm going to try harder to help pledges understand the terminology of the chapter and the Fraternity, the background and purpose of projects and other events, and the expectations and goals of pledging.

As for highlights, one was getting to know my pledge brothers. They were — and are — an awesome bunch.

A particularly fond memory is the pleasant dinners and broad and deep Fraternity discussions that pledge class president Jerry Horstmann and I had at the local Mexican restaurant.

Another highlight was when my Big Brother presented to me the lettered jersey that has been in our Big Brother family for at least four generations. I know that may seem hokey, but I think it's really neat.

I also think it's neat that our Big Brother family tree includes two of my best alumni friends, both of whom are still in the Clemson area and one of whom chairs Gamma Lambda's advisory committee.

Would I pledge again tomorrow? Probably not.

Pledging is a wonderful experience, and so was repledging. I think it would do every Brother good to rediscover the Fraternity from the fresh perspective of a pledge eager to learn about and become a part of the Brotherhood we too often take for granted.

But Alpha Phi Omega is not about perpetual pledging.

Pledging is but a membership process leading to something much more wonderful, much more significant, much more demanding: becoming a Brother and fulfilling our solemn and personally binding promise to each other that we will practice the principles of Leadership, Friendship and Service in all that we do, wherever we go, and for as long as we journey upon this earth.

I was proud to become a pledge again, but I am even prouder to be a Brother.

National Service

THE WHITE HOUSE WASHINGTON

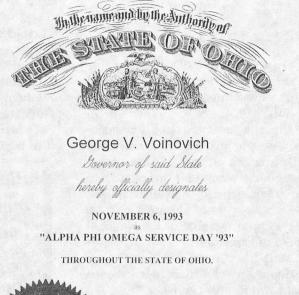

November 4, 1993

Greetings to everyone gathered in cities across the country to celebrate the Alpha Phi Omega National Service Day. It is fitting that you have selected 1993 as the year to focus your work on heightening AIDS awareness on America's campuses and in our communities. Our society now recognizes that AIDS is a disease that, in one way or another, affects all of us.

As you well know, government alone does not make America work -- people do. The real strength of our nation stems from the energy of people who, like you, take responsibility for their families, their communities, and their nation. Your work in helping to involve young people in the fight against AIDS exemplifies the bast of that American spirit. Working together, the youth of this nation can make a positive difference in helping to shape our future.

I commend you for your important efforts and extend my best wishes for a successful day.

Members promote awareness of HIV/AIDS

National Service Day — a day to focus on serving others, a day to focus on giving of your time and energy to a worthy cause, and a day to focus on celebrating what our Fraternity does for our college campuses and communities through the collective efforts of our individual members, our chapters, our sections, our regions, and through our national organization.

National Service Day is celebrated in many ways across the country. One celebration was a Tri-Sectional Conference (Sections 32, 33, and 34) held over the weekend of November 5-7. The underlying theme of the conference was on our national emphasis of service for the year — AIDS Awareness. The conference included written material about HIV/AIDS in each participant's packet, an educational keynote address by Donna Reed, HIV Prevention Coordinator for the University of Arkansas, regarding the current trends in HIV/AIDS research and what the audience could do to prevent further transmission. A workshop session followed up on Ms. Reed's comments, moderated by Dwain Lamb, board member of the Washington County AIDS Task Force, which allowed for discussion and questions on this topic. The highlight of the conference was the showing of "And the Band Played On," the HBO movie chronicling the worldwide outbreak of the virus and the efforts made to discover a reason for the virus.

It was evident that the members of Alpha Phi Omega attending the conference were interested in and wanted to know more about the topic of HIV/AIDS Awareness. The keynote and follow-up session gave members a unique opportunity to learn up-to-date information abou' HIV/AIDS in a clinical and person way. HIV/AIDS remains a major health concern for the United States and the world. Focus on the topic should not end with National Service Day 1993.

Nu Theta

On November 10, 1993, Nu Theta Chapter at Luther College in Decorah, Iowa, sponsored a blood drive in connection with Alpha Phi Omega's National Service Day. The chapter surpassed a goal of 160 pints, collecting 183 pints of blood for the Red Cross. Co-chairs of the event, Shannon `onnell and Kristy Miller, noted there were 87 vol-teers in connection with planning, recruiting donors, and working at the blood drive. In addition, at the blood drive, there was an AIDS and HIV information table. That same evening, Nu Theta chapter sponsored a free campus and community wide showing of the movie, "And the Band Played On," a movie promoting AIDS/HIV awareness and understanding. Delta Upsilon

On December 7, 1993, the Delta Upsilon Chapter at East Stroudsburg University, completed its annual Unique Person on Campus Award by presenting Jennifer Bedwick, Division Director of the NEPA March of Dimes, with a check for $110.00. The project is a variation of the Ugly Man on Campus and is run by having each of the student organizations nominate persons from their organization that they feel deserves the honor of being ESU's Unique Person. The university community votes for their favorite unique person by placing money in that person's jar. All of the money collected goes to the winner's choice of charitable organization. Voting took place over two days at the University Center. Nominees were from the residence halls, Panhellenic Council, fraternities, sororities, and the Residence Hall Association. Each nominee provided a picture, a short biography, and a charity organization to sponsor. This year's winner of the event was Tyrone Comunale from Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity. He was able to raise over $55.00 in his jar during the voting period. For more information about this project please feel free to contact Delta Upsilon Chapter at East Stroudsburg, c/o University Center, East Stroudsburg, PA 18301.

Additionally, Delta Upsilon helped to sort part of the 47,000 pounds of food brought in by Boy Scouts in the Pocono District of the Minsi Trails Council as part of the Scouting for Food, National Good Turn project. Other East Stroudsburg University fraternities and sororities helped to sort the food as well, They included Delta Sigma Phi and Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternities and Phi Sigma Sigma and Lambda Iota sororities. For more information about the Scouting for Food Project contact the Boy Scout Council in your geographical area.

Nu Epsilon

Georgia Southern University's Nu Epsilon Chapter co-sponsored with the American Cancer Society of Statesboro, Georgia, a fund-raiser called Jail and Bail on October 28th and 29th. The goal for this event was $10,000.00. Due in part to the chapter's great efforts, a grand total of $11,970.00 was raised! Nu Epsilon's President, Eric Haymans, was one of the many people arrested. He successfully raised $524.00 for his bail. The chapter had a great time and the project was a tremendous success.
