THE QUARTERLY PUBLICATION OF ALPHA PHI OMEGA
 NATIONAL SERVICE FRATERNITY

Winter 2006

Unbridled Service in Louisville!

As we prepare for our 39th Biennial Convention – Alpha Phi Omega's greatest celebration that occurs once every two years – we should take a moment to think about the theme of this year's event. Unbridled: running free; unrestrained enthusiasm; unhampered service – doing as much service as we can to support our nation, communities, campuses and Fraternity.

Participation in the Convention itself is service to the Fraternity. Whether you're an active or alumni member, involved on a regular basis or a Brother who hasn't attended an APO event since graduation, there is something for everyone at this year's celebration.

Brothers from across the country have been working diligently to plan what we hope will be the largest gathering of Brothers in the history of Alpha Phi Omega! Our exciting four-day extravaganza begins with the Reunion Carnival just prior to the Opening Ceremony on December 27 and culminates with our Toast Song at the conclusion of the Awards Banquet on December 30. Mixed between these events is something for everyone, including service projects, fellowship events, workshops, legislation and day trips (read more on pages 12-13).

The Convention Planning Committee developed its vision for this year's Convention: To engage the whole Fraternity in a celebration of Brotherhood from which each Brother will leave energized to Share, Grow, Improve and Invest in the future of Alpha Phi Omega.

It's not too late to make plans to be in Louisville, Kentucky, for what is sure to be four fantastic days of Unbridled Service. For more information or to register, visit the 2006 National Convention web site at www.convention.apo.org.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

BY DR. FRED C. HEISMEYER III, NATIONAL PRESIDENT

Celebrating Success — Striving for Improvement!

As we approach our 39th National Convention, I cannot help but spend time reflecting on these past two years. Our Brothers served tens of thousands of disadvantaged individuals and hundreds of worthwhile causes nationwide, completing a conservative estimate of more than one million hours of volunteer service. We continued to develop leadership through service, as our Brothers put Servant Leadership into action. We included more students on more campuses, allowing our Brotherhood to complete more service projects.

At every level of the Fraternity we are stressing continuous improvement. We updated our web site to improve communications to our membership. We developed a national marketing campaign to drive college students interested in service to our local Chapters. We examined our current structures and our ability to deliver the Fraternity's programs and made significant improvements in Chapter and membership support. We created a Student Advisory Committee to provide direct student input at the national level. Finally, we examined current systems and processes for creating new Chapters, registering membership, and paying fees, and developed new strategies for improving each of these areas.

Success and improvement are essential to our sustainability. Active and alumni Brothers continue to share our story, grow our membership, and improve our programs by personally investing their time, talents and finances, which are so important for success. We must continue to improve systems and processes, and provide unlimited support to Brothers and Chapters. We must embrace and celebrate these efforts, both big and small. And the 2006 National Convention will be just that – an opportunity to celebrate our great success, focus on improving APO and plan strategies for future growth and achievements.

You are invited to participate in what we expect to be one of the largest, if not the largest, Conventions in our history! Active and alumni Brothers alike will not want to miss this event, as there will be something for everyone. The traditional program that includes educational workshops, reference committee work and legislation will be an important part of this year's agenda. In addition, the National Convention Planning Committee, under the leadership of Convention chair Brittany Recktenwald-Montgomery and Convention coordinator Dave Keely, has planned several exciting activities, including local tours, memorable banquets, an opening session like no other and some special sessions that you will certainly want to experience. Finally, the most important reason to attend the 2006 National Convention is the fellowship – catching up with old friends, making new ones and celebrating the glorious 81-year history of our Brotherhood.

Diversity Beyond Your Chapter

Bringing Diversity to Life

We're often told that in order to have a strong financial outlook, we should diversify our investment portfolio. Consider applying that philosophy to life and what diversifying your life can do for your well-being. Diversity can be more than a corporate initiative. It can be a practice incorporated into your personal life. There's a saying, "You get the same results by doing the same things." Try something different. Think about how diverse your life is and the types of things that you can do to enrich it. Being open to different experiences can be a catalyst to being open to different kinds of people. Not sure how? Here are a few suggestions to help get you started.

Say Yes to New Things

When someone invites you to a play, movie, or an event that you normally wouldn't attend, say yes. One reason people don't seek out a new experience is that they have never tried it before. How do you know you won't like foreign films if you've never seen one? How do you know you won't enjoy an opera if you've never heard one? Try something at least once, maybe even twice. Learning about other cultures through experiences is a great way to make an effort towards diversity.

Volunteer

Many different organizations could use your help. You can read to the blind, tutor a child, or help a shelter that serves the homeless. Interacting with persons different from yourself is a great way to broaden your perspective. Having personal experiences with those of other races or cultures may help negate myths, stereotypes, or fears. Volunteering is a wonderful way to enrich your life, while helping an organization in need.

Tempt Your Palate

Food is a wonderful way to be exposed to other cultures and ethnicities. Besides Italian or Chinese, consider trying an Ethiopian, Thai, or Hungarian restaurant. It's a great way to open up to other parts of the world. If you find yourself really enjoying food from a particular country, take it a step further and learn more about the culture itself. It could be the start of a great experience and bring another culture even closer.

Take an Ethnic Studies Class

If there's a particular culture that you've always been interested in, an adult education class could be for you. Local community colleges offer a variety of courses from African American Literature to Chinese Religions. You can expand your horizons, meet new people, and learn something all at the same time.

Having a lifestyle full of diversity means being open to change and incorporating it into your everyday living. Make sure you are friendly to everyone and not exclusive in any way, shape, or form. Seek out groups that are working toward improving diversity. If you see an opportunity to encourage diversity in your workplace or community, strive to make it happen.

President's message continued from page 2

Brothers, thank you for your continued commitment to our great Fraternity! Thank you for your dedication to serving others and giving unselfishly of your time and energy to so many worthy causes. Thank you for providing exceptional leadership on your campuses and in your communities to help make this world a little better for those in need.

I look forward to seeing you at our National Convention, and as we enter this holiday season I wish you and your family peace and a very happy new year.

In Service/In Brotherhood,

Tau Chapter Celebrates 75 Years

Brothers of Tau Chapter, at the University of Florida in Gainesville, FL, celebrated 75 years of Leadership, Friendship and Service in April during the annual Founder's Day banquet. More than 50 members attended this event with "Welcome to Taullywood" as the theme (in the style of the red carpet awards similar to the Oscars). The banquet recognized the dedicated service to the Chapter as well as to the community. Region IV Director Matt Cross and Sectional 74 Chair Brian Wilson attended, and three Chapter Distinguished Service Keys were presented, along with several annual awards.

50th Anniversary for Mu Alpha Chapter

In March, more than 300 Mu Alpha Brothers returned to Georgetown University in Washington, D.C., to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Chapter. The four-day event included football, parties, service projects, a barbeque and the initiation of 13 new Brothers on the Chapter's 101st line. The weekend concluded with a black-tie banquet with the Honorable Maura Harty, Assistant Secretary of State for Consular Affairs, giving the keynote address about how no matter who we are in APO, "service is what we do." To learn more about Mu Alpha Chapter, visit <http://www.mualpha.org/undergrad/index.html>.

25 Years for Alpha Alpha Xi

Alpha Alpha Xi Chapter, at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, CA, celebrated its 25th anniversary in grand style during March and April. In March, Alpha Alpha Xi hosted the Section 4 Spring Conference, with "Hollywood and Motion Pictures" as the theme. After a full day of workshops and fellowship activities, the closing banquet featured previous Chapter charter members who told tales of Alpha Alpha Xi's beginnings. Everyone then joined together and sang "Happy Birthday" to the Chapter and continued the celebration with delicious birthday cake. This event was followed by the Chapter's annual banquet in April, which commemorated 25 years of service to Alpha Phi Omega and to the Stockton community.

APO LEADS

launch | explore | achieve | discover | serve

Presenters Needed!

Did you ever wonder how you could give back to the Fraternity - directly to the actives and pledges? Do you enjoy traveling? Could you conduct a presentation for a few hours? Could you present the course that you're trained in at least once each year? If you answered yes to these questions, and if you're willing to make the commitment to attend training, then please consider becoming an APO LEADS presenter. Here are three steps to take to become a presenter:

1. Attend Basic Skills (Presentation & Facilitation).
2. Attend the APO LEADS course that you wish to present (excludes SERVE).
3. Attend that APO LEADS Content Training Course.

Options for where to attend the training:

- At the 2006 National Convention in Louisville, Kentucky (all training courses except SERVE Content Training will be offered).
- SERVE Content Training is offered annually at SERVE course locations.
- Both Basic Skills courses are offered at the National Volunteer Conference held every summer.
- At a Regional Conference in December of a non-National Convention year.
- You can also request training courses by contacting David Eyl, APO LEADS Training Coordinator.

To learn more and/or to register for any of these training opportunities, please contact David Eyl at training.coordinator@leadership.apo.org. He will be glad to answer your questions and help get you started!

APO Chapter Alumni Participate in "Oaken Bucket" Competition

In an effort to increase the number of Torchbearers from Alpha Gamma Chapter at Purdue University, Tom Jackson, a 1990 Alpha Gamma initiate, came up with an idea that would expand a campus tradition between two schools to Alpha Phi Omega.

The Old Oaken Bucket is a trophy awarded each year to the winner of the Purdue University-University of Indiana football game. First started in 1925, the Old Oaken Bucket is adorned with bronze links indicating the season's winning team.

Brother Jackson's idea was to expand this annual school tradition to Alpha Phi Omega, encouraging a fun rivalry between alumni. In support of Alpha Phi Omega's Annual Fund, Alpha Gamma engages in a competition with Mu Chapter at the University of Indiana. The Chapter with the largest percentage increase of Torchbearer donors over the previous year (by December 15, 2006) will be the recipient of the APO Oaken Bucket Award. The winning Chapter will receive a traveling trophy and be recognized at the 2006 National Convention in Louisville, Kentucky. "This is simply a fun way to increase alumni support from two Chapters and expand a tradition," stated Jackson. "Every year there are several Brothers I know who could support the Fraternity's Annual Fund by becoming a Torchbearer; my idea is to add some Fraternal competition to the process."

Brother Jackson is chairing this effort for Alpha Gamma Chapter. Kelly Ross, a 1995 initiate from the University of Indiana, is chairing for Mu Chapter. Between now and December, Brothers from both Chapters will be contacted and asked to consider becoming a Torchbearer.

APO Brothers can track the competition between these two Chapters by visiting the Fraternity's website at www.apo.org and checking out the APO Oaken Bucket page.

A Band of Brothers

The Dallas, Texas-based Mayo family has definitely embraced Alpha Phi Omega, with three sons joining the Fraternity at three different universities. Pictured left to right are Jeff Mayo, a grad student at Texas Tech University, where he served as president of Beta Sigma Chapter in fall of 2004 and spring of 2005; David Mayo, an alumnus of Texas A&M University, where he served as president of Xi Delta Chapter in 2002; and Andrew Mayo, a student at Southwestern University and a member of Alpha Gamma Kappa, where he served as member-at-large and publicity chair. Andrew plans to attend the 2006 National Convention in Louisville. Thank you Mayo brothers for your commitment to and leadership in our great Fraternity!

Featuring... Hershel Hartford

CHAPTER ADVISOR'S CORNER

We'd like to take this opportunity to introduce you to Hershel Hartford, a very special individual and dedicated Brother and Advisory Chair for our beloved Fraternity.

Hershel resides in Fayetteville, Arkansas, and has been involved with Alpha Phi Omega for more than 20 years. In 1984 he became a member of Zeta Tau Chapter at Central Methodist University (then Central Methodist College) in Fayette, Missouri. "My campus friends – Mark Evans, Gary Clark, Kim Willard and Steve Steinhaus – are Zeta Tau Brothers. Through their involvement, I learned to appreciate the values of Leadership, Friendship and Service, which inspired me to pledge," stated Hershel.

Over the years, Hershel experienced firsthand how APO benefits campuses and communities throughout the country. In 2003, his career path took him from parish youth ministry into campus ministry when he became chaplain at St. Martin's Episcopal University Center at the University of Arkansas. He also became the canon missionary for Campus Ministry for the Episcopal Diocese of Arkansas.

Hershel visited an APO information booth on campus and was quite impressed. He introduced himself as an alumnus and was contacted a few weeks later regarding facility information for an executive committee planning retreat. The relationship grew and Hershel was eventually asked to serve as an advisor, and then as an advisory chair for Beta Rho Chapter, following in the footsteps of Dr. Fred Heismeyer III, National President.

Hershel credits his involvement as an advisor to the amazing group of students in Beta Rho. "Their spirit and energy are infectious and their commitment to APO's Cardinal Principles are inspiring. I'm continually amazed at their efforts and abilities," he said.

Hershel feels strongly about what it takes to be a good advisor, which includes a deep commitment and being accessible. "It's about trusting those young adults to take hold of the leadership positions entrusted to them and offering your time and gifts freely. You also have to be willing to take the time to listen as the Chapter evolves into its unique identity each semester."

Even though things have changed over the past several years, Hershel feels that the continued commitment of our APO Brotherhood through Leadership, Friendship and Service will provide an even greater focus for the growth of our Fraternity. Future generations will benefit from the leadership programs, enriched fellowship, and service opportunities while reaching out to others and shaping new lives.

Through his work as a chaplain, Hershel serves the students, faculty and staff at the University of Arkansas, providing spiritual guidance, spiritual formation programs, worship, service and fellowship opportunities. Hershel is married to Mary Ellen Hartford and their family includes six children between the ages of 9 and 31, along with four grandchildren. In his spare time, Hershel enjoys photography, music, cooking, web design, reading, writing and traveling with a special fondness for travel by train.

2006 National Convention

As we close the 2006 National Convention, the newly elected National Board members will be installed and Chapter awards will be presented. Please don't miss this memorable banquet with your fellow Brothers!

SCHEDULE

- DECEMBER 27: The Alpha Phi Omega 39th National Convention officially begins with registration, which is open all day. There's a mandatory meeting for Voting Delegates at 2:30 p.m. The Reunion Carnival is a new event that will begin at 5:30 p.m. Be sure to stop by and learn about cool Convention events as you'll be able to sign up for service projects at this time. You can also purchase hot dogs and hamburgers at a nice low cost prior to the Opening Ceremonies. We hope you'll be there at 7:30 p.m. to help open our National Convention! Following the Opening Ceremonies, the Reference Committees will meet to plan their work.
- DECEMBER 28: You don't want to miss the APO LEADS workshops, along with many others to choose from. Reference Committees will meet and review legislation throughout the day. At 8:00 a.m. join us for our fitness class. If that's not what you had in mind, then try out Speed Fellowship at 10:00 a.m. Here you'll have the chance to meet other Brothers in a format similar to the popular speed dating. Finally, don't forget to attend the Fellowship Banquet. This year's theme is "Batter Up". Wear your favorite baseball team's jersey and join us for a fun night at the game.
- DECEMBER 29: More workshops will be available throughout the day and the Legislative Session will begin. There will also be a Candidates Forum where you can ask questions to those Brothers running for National Board positions, as well as see the groups bidding to host the 2008 National Convention. Then, join us for the first ever APO Wedding, followed by a Wedding Crashers Dance at 9:00 p.m.
- DECEMBER 30: The Legislative Session concludes and more great workshops will be available. The Awards Banquet, with the theme "A Night at the Races – Come Dressed in Your Best Derby Attire," will celebrate our great host city and its signature event, the Kentucky Derby.

LEADERSHIP

The 2006 National Convention will be one of the best opportunities to learn and use leadership skills that are central to our Fraternity. During the Convention, attendees will be able to:

- Demonstrate leadership as Voting Delegates and Reference Committee members. These roles are vital in determining the future course of the Fraternity and represent one of the highest levels of service to Alpha Phi Omega.
- Develop leadership skills by attending the workshops, including APO LEADS and Chapter Officer Training, which offers a nuts-and-bolts perspective on the major Chapter offices.
- Discover new seminars such as website design, interviewing techniques, public relations strategies, massage and much more that will be enjoyable.
- Discover new leadership styles and methods by sharing stories and perspectives with Brothers from across the nation.
- Determine the future leadership of Alpha Phi Omega by electing members of the National Board of Directors and deciding on legislation.

FRIENDSHIP

Anyone who has ever been to an APO National Convention can tell you that it's one of the most fun experiences you will ever have. Much more than just a double-long conference, the Convention is fellowship on a massive scale. Come to Louisville and you'll be entertained with:

- Our Speed Fellowship is one event you surely don't want to miss. Come make new friends in a fun, safe environment.
- Enjoy all of the exciting activities as two APO Brothers tie the knot. It will be a late night as we celebrate at our Wedding Crasher's dance!

Unbridled Service at its very best!

- Visit our Color Wars where you'll be teamed up with Brothers from across the country to compete for great prizes. Meet new people and see old friends from other Chapters, sections, regions and conferences.
- Bring your old shirts for our first APO T-shirt Signing during Karaoke on the last night of Convention.

SERVICE

Alpha Phi Omega's service program is an important component of the National Convention. You can serve the members of the Fraternity by being a Voting Delegate, which is a great way to provide service to your Chapter, as well as to APO. If you're not a Voting Delegate, there are other ways to provide service to the Fraternity, as listed below:

- Safety and Security Volunteers Needed – Rovers/Patrol
The Rovers position entails walking throughout the hotel enforcing policies and making sure events are not getting out of control, i.e. parties, loudness, etc. This position also includes looking out for suspicious activities. The Rovers positions will be divided into various two-hour shifts and will be staffed with volunteers gathered at registration and throughout the Convention. Rovers will also have use of radios to alert help if complications arise. Shifts begin at 10:00 p.m. and run through 4:00 a.m. We'll need 48 individuals to volunteer for these positions each night – December 27-30.
- Escorts – The escort position is a new safety and security addition that will help any Brother of APO with assistance back to the hotel (within a four-block radius). There will be one male and one female staff member per shift with radios. We'll need approximately six people per night – same hours and dates as the Rovers position.
- Sergeant at Arms/Floor Services – Volunteers are needed during both the Reference Committees and the Legislative Sessions to run notes, subpoena witnesses, count votes and to keep order. There will be multiple shifts running December 28-30, so this could be your chance to volunteer and see the legislative process up close.
- Service to the community and the nation is also an important part of the APO service program. Service projects offered throughout the Convention will include:

– We're having a "Green Convention" which means we'll have recycling containers throughout the conference. We're asking everyone to recycle his or her aluminum cans, glass bottles and paper during these four days. We'll need volunteers to help sort the goods and also to help load them onto trucks to go to the recycling center.

– We're also sponsoring numerous community events including a Blood Drive at the Hotel.

NEW EVENTS FOR ALUMNI

This year we have some new events planned for APO alumni and their families. We're sponsoring a Child Fun Room, especially designed for busy APO parents! Here you can come and enjoy special time with your children and other young parents. Activities will include arts and crafts, games and outings for little ones.

We have great activities planned for spouses as well. We have new seminars targeted especially for these spouses, such as "I'm Married to a Brother, What Have I Got Myself Into" and Interview Techniques, Networking and Corn hole.

DAY TRIPS

What better a way to enjoy Louisville than to see some local attractions? This year you can sign-up for day trips at registration or by e-mailing us via the National Convention website. Here are the exciting trips we're offering and please remember there is a small fee for these events:

- Kentucky Bourbon History Center – Learn how Kentucky's most famous drink is made and the important part Bourbon plays in Kentucky's heritage.
- Louisville Slugger Museum – See how a real Louisville Slugger baseball bat is made.
- Churchill Downs – Home to the Kentucky Derby, this is where you'll learn about the history and how horse racing plays an important part in Kentucky's economy.
