editorial

Since 1936, when Life Membership was first established, 5,000 Brothers have committed their support to the Fraternity in this manner. We join with these Brothers in saluting Ken Ziegler, of Epsilon Chapter, Northeast Missouri State University, our 5,000th Life Member.

As we reach this milestone, it seems appropriate to pause to reflect about what Life Membership is and what it means to the Fraternity.

Life Membership is several things. First of all, it is a means of maintaining contact with the Fraternity throughout your lifetime. It is a commitment to the ideals of the Fraternity, and to the perpetuation of the three cardinal principles. Equally as important, Life Membership helps to insure the future financial stability of the Fraternity.

The undergraduate fee for Life Membership is $25.00. For Alumni, the fee is $50.00, lowered from $75.00 by the 1972 National Convention. As a Life Member, you will receive a lifetime subscription to Torch and Trefoil, as well as other mailings currently being planned for Life Members. You will be able to participate in Sectional and Regional Conferences and National Conventions. The opportunity to serve in a volunteer capacity is available to Life Members.

Life Membership fees are deposited in the Fraternity's Endowment Fund, set up to insure the perpetuation of the Fraternity. These monies are invested in stocks and bonds by the Endowment Trustees elected by the National Convention. In turn, the dividends and interest from those investments are made available to the Fraternity for its operating budget. Thus your Life Membership fees aid Alpha Phi Omega on both a short term and a long term basis. Through the years the Endowment Fund has grown to over $100,000.

Interest in Life Membership has increased substantially recently. The Fall 1973 Pledge Class of Phi Chapter, Syracuse University, in a tribute to J. Frank McMullan, have all become Life Members. In doing this, they have challenged all new Brothers to make the same commitment to Brother McMullan and Alpha Phi Omega. How about joining this dedicated group of Brothers?

Mrs. "T" Retires

Her experience in managing her own Letter and Secretarial Service, before she joined Alpha Phi Omega professionally, was of inestimable value. She was never satisfied with anything less than the best in appearance, in spelling, and the contents of bulletins and all correspondence. To her each person written to was more than a name and an address. Brother North and his successors, Brother Scanlon and Brother Sherwood, knew that anything committed to her would be completed in a first class manner.

Brothers coming to the National Office made it a point to meet Mrs. "T." They found they could rely on her to exert every effort to meet their needs and those of their chapters.

Over the years the respective National Secretaries, later termed National Directors, left her in charge when they were away on field trips. National Presidents on their official visitations to the National Office came to realize that with Mrs. "T" the Fraternity was more than an office job and much more than a pay check. Every past National President affirmed this, from Dr. H. Roe Bartle through the administrations of Dean Arno Nowotny, Professor Daniel Den Uyl, M. R. Disborough, William S. Roth, Dr. Lester R. Steig, Dr. Tom T. Galt, E. Ross Forman, Dr. Glen T. Nygreen, Aubrey B. Hamilton, and Lucius E. Young, LTC. Ret.

The Fraternity's chartered chapters doubled between 1950 and 1973 and initiated membership quadrupled. Nevertheless, she kept pace with it all, never hesitating to fill in when office help was in short supply.

Mrs. "T" was acclaimed by Brothers at the National Convention in 1972 held in Denver, Colorado, for her contribution to APO. The standing ovation she received bore witness to the esteem and affection in which she is held by the Brotherhood. Beta Sigma, Texas Tech, made her an honorary member and presented her with a plaque in recognition of her devotion.

Mrs. "T" has retired from her position in the National Office. She can never be retired from her interest in Alpha Phi Omega and the appreciation of those who have known and worked with her.

Alpha Phi Omega's Mrs. "T" retired December 31, 1973 as the Fraternity's Office Manager and Comptroller.

Nevertheless countless Brothers and Advisors and Board Members will always remember her for her devotion and exceptional Service.

Her career in Alpha Phi Omega began January 1, 1950. Brother Arno Nowotny was then National President and Sidney B. North National Secretary. The Fraternity had 227 chartered chapters and some 33,000 initiated members. Fraternity Brothers soon learned that the new office secretary was ready and willing to go the second mile in Service whenever needed. Her efficiency and devotion to chapters and Brothers was matched by a willingness to assist the National Secretary in every possible way.

Here's How Alumni Can Serve

The following statement appears in Alpha Phi Omega's new pamphlet, Everybody's Gotta Have A Gang:

"You have the capacity to lead others — we have the capacity to develop it.

You have a great friendship to share — we have the opportunity to share it.

You have the potential to enrich the lives of others — we have the potential to develop it.

The leadership, friendship and service you begin with us will take the rest of your life to finish."

Alpha Phi Omega alumni are attempting to change the last statement by forming alumni associations throughout the country. We want it to read "The leadership, friendship and service you begin with us will take the rest of your life to finish with us." One means of accomplishing this is by continuing our Alpha Phi Omega involvement through local alumni associations.

What is an alumni association? It is a locally oriented, voluntary organization of Brothers who have left the campus but wish to remain active in the Fraternity. Such a group provides an excellent opportunity to extend the program of Alpha Phi Omega.

What is the purpose of a local alumni association? The By-Laws define it as follows: "The purpose of local alumni organizations shall be to promote the principles of Alpha Phi Omega among alumni members and the entire Fraternity through such activities as the local alumni organizations may deem desirable." A primary objective of this approach is to continue personal involvement of Alpha Phi Omega Brothers in living the ideals of the Fraternity through assistance to Chapters, Sections, Regions, and the National Fraternity. Effective support through annual contributions is another essential and necessary way alumni help implement the program of the Fraternity.

The undergraduate delegates to the 1970 National Convention wisely structured the National By-Laws in a manner that allows local alumni groups to organize and operate with a maximum amount of flexibility. Associations may be composed of the alumni of a single chapter, or all alumni Brothers within a particular geographical area.

The alumni movement is growing steadily, with new associations being formed each month. Alumni are supporting chapters, sectional and regional activities in ever-increasing numbers. More and more alumni are investing in the financial stability of our Fraternity.

All undergraduate Chapters should have alumni secretaries whose duty is to maintain address information and contact with alumni. Any alumni lists developed should be forwarded to the National Office, so that all alumni may be included in our data processing file. If we can build on the concept of alumni involvement and support at the undergraduate level, we can insure a stronger Alpha Phi Omega in the future.

If you are an alumnus and not presently active in the movement, please contact the National Office or National Alumni Chairman to find out how you can get involved. If you are graduating this year, make definite plans to join your alumni Brothers in helping the Fraternity. There is much to be done and we need your help.

Alumni Greet Board

Representatives of two newly formed alumni associations met with the National Board of Directors in Chicago when the Board gathered for the fall meeting. Brothers were in attendance from Eta Chapter at Northern Illinois University representing the Greater Chicago Alumni Association, and from Iota Chi Chapter at Northern Michigan University representing the Iota Chi Alumni Association. Dr. John E. Hanke, National Alumni Committee Chairman, and the Board pledged continued support for these and other new alumni associations being formed across the country.

Past National Secretary Reaches 50 Years In Scouting

Becoming a Scout in 1923 at age 12 (before the advent of Cub Scouting), Sidney B. North, Alpha Phi Omega's first National Executive Secretary, has continued actively in scouting through the years. He recently received a letter from Robert W. Reneker, President of the Boy Scouts of America, and Alden G. Barber, Chief Scout Executive, congratulating him upon a half-century of service and leadership.

Sid joined Alpha Phi Omega as a charter member of Pi Chapter at Kansas State University in 1930, and served as secretary and chapter president. He represented his chapter at the Fraternity's first National Convention.

In 1933, Sid was appointed as the first National Executive Secretary of Alpha Phi Omega, and he continued in that capacity for 27 years, during which time the fraternity grew from 29 chapters to 251 chapters.

In 1960, he became affiliated with the executive staff of Rotary International at Evanston, Illinois, where he was appointed head of the Service to Clubs Section for the United States and Canada.

Sid is a lifetime member of the National Board of Directors of Alpha Phi Omega and is on the national committee of the Order of the Arrow. He has received distinguished service awards from both organizations. He has also received the Silver Beaver and Silver Antelope awards in Scouting.

In August, Brother North retired after 40 years with service organizations. He and his wife Louise have moved back to the Kansas City area, and we expect to see Sid frequently in the National Office of Alpha Phi Omega.

Alpha Phi Omega Funds Guatemalan School

Alpha Phi Omega funds have made possible construction of a recently-completed school at Caquixajay, in Guatemala. The school is located in a poor farming community in the western highlands province of Ghimaltenango, where family income averages $300 per year. Despite this poverty, the villagers were anxious to give their children a proper school. CARE, the overseas aid and development agency, was able to make their dream come true, thanks to the Brothers of Alpha Phi Omega.

Last Mother's Day, many chapters across the country participated in a special CARE Mother's Day project by distributing materials on campus. The resulting contributions for CARE's Mother's Day plan (which sends aid overseas in the mother's name) produced the funds that enabled CARE to complete the school. The end result is a new block building with six classrooms, attached living quarters for the director and a storeroom. It is by far the village's finest structure and will serve Caquixajay's need for years to come.

Construction of the school developed as follows: The community gave the site, the unskilled labor and locally available materials. The municipality and the National Committee for the Construction of Schools also provided materials. Other materials that were either unavailable locally or which the villagers could not afford were provided through Alpha Phi Omega contributions.

Currently 487,000 children attend primary school in Guatemala. Another 588,000, or 54.7% of the school-age population, cannot attend because of classroom space shortage. The government and the people themselves, in spite of extremely limited resources, are doing their best to remedy the situation. Through donors such as APO, CARE is playing a significant role, in Guatemala and other countries, in helping people around the world attain their goals.

Mr. John P. Rutten, CARE Assistant Director in Guatemala, in a recent letter to the National Office, said, "CARE would like to thank you on behalf of the people of Caquixajay and to add our thanks to theirs. I had the pleasure of visiting the completed school last week. Chatting with the people, I found that your help has been truly appreciated. Generous support such as yours is helping to make CARE's Guatemala school program a resounding success."

CARE's Mother's Day Plan needs our support again next year. The January bulletin will contain information for those chapters wishing to participate. CARE will again provide a report of the use of the funds raised.

Xi Sigma Assists Retarded Girl

For the second straight year, XI SIGMA CHAPTER, CARSON-NEWMAN COLLEGE, is actively involved in helping with physical therapy for a mentally retarded girl. The Brothers work with her once a week to develop motor coordination by moving her limbs in numerous directed patterns, an activity designed to stimulate the unused portion of the brain. Through time, it is hoped that this procedure will revive her ability to facilitate and coordinate her own movements, and to overcome her disability.

Bouncing for MD

Shown here are just a few of the brothers of BETA SIGMA of TEXAS TECH who raised over $550.00 for Muscular Dystrophy by bouncing a basketball continuously for 30 hours at South Plains Mall in Lubbock, Texas. Shoppers in the mall were allowed to bounce the ball during the 30 hours and many did, including the President of Texas Tech, Grover Murray, and Tech's head football coach, Jim Carlen. Brothers Doug Megredy and Ray Alverson headed up the project.

Strong Start for Delta Xi

Can you think of a better way to start the school year than with a traditional project? The Brothers of DELTA XI, BALL STATE UNIVERSITY can't. As in years past Delta Xi constructed the queen's float which led the Homecoming Parade through the campus.

In addition to working on the float four nights a week, the chapter operated all phases of the Campus Lost and Found. To complicate matters further, the Brothers acted as the sole guardians of all of the floats the night before Homecoming activities. In all, the 11 Brothers managed to total up more than 200 service hours during the first month of school.

Diploma Derby

On October 27, 1973, PI RHO CHAPTER, RIDER COLLEGE, took part in a charity pony race. The "Diploma Derby," as it was called, was sponsored by Freehold Raceway, Freehold, New Jersey.

The purse of $1,000 was distributed among the participants, with Bob Fried, Pi Rho's rider, placing third and winning $150.00, which was sent to the New Jersey Association of the Multiple Sclerosis Association.

Leadership in Service

A challenge was issued by PI IOTA CHAPTER, WOFFORD COLLEGE, to the eight Social Fraternities on the campus to match the chapter's $125.00 donation to the "Good-fellows," an organization which provides Christmas gifts for needy children in the community. The Chapter hopes, through this action, to strengthen college-community relations and to draw social fraternities together for a common good cause.

International Service Project

An international flavor has been added to the Service program of PHI EPSILON, MAINE MARITIME ACADEMY. While in Cartagena, Colombia on the spring training cruise, the ship's doctor brought back word of the deplorable conditions in the children's hospital there, saying that any assistance in making mechanical repairs be gratefully received. Phi Epsilon organized a work party, took a missionary sister as interpreter, and with their own tools, spent a whole day putting any number of badly needed mechanical gadgets back into working order.

Service to the Handicapped

The Brothers of UPSILON KAPPA CHAPTER, ST. AUGUSTINE'S COLLEGE, have taken on as one of their major projects for 1973 the Community Group Houses of Raleigh, North Carolina. These houses are designed to provide a sheltered-living situation where the handicapped can find their way back into the mainstream of life, living, working, and enjoying recreation.

The chapter has done cleaning and landscaping at one of the 3 houses, painting at the second, and has plans for further maintenance throughout the school year.

Campus Lost & Found Center

Many Chapters face the problem of not having an office or central location on campus. When asking the administration for space they encounter such answers as, "If we give you space, then we will have to give every other independent organization space," or, "We can't justify it," or, "We just don't have the available space."

IOTA ALPHA CHAPTER at the UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE found the answer to the problem by providing a Central Lost and Found Service. In most cases colleges and universities do not have a central lost and found office that is open full time. Frequently when something is lost, a person must go to many different offices to see if it was turned in. When someone finds an article they don't know who or where to turn it in to. Consequently, the return rate for lost articles is very low.

When Iota Alpha established the Central Lost and Found Service, it was provided with a room in the student center, a desk, a file cabinet and a set of shelves, most of which were cast-offs from other departments but in usable condition. An agreement was made with the University that valuable articles would be retained for a minimum of twelve months and all others would be retained for at least six months. Every quarter the Chapter holds a sale, with the income used to defray the expenses of publicity, telephone and office supplies.

When an article is turned in, it is chronologically numbered with a colored tag. There is a different color tag for each quarter and the numbers begin again with 001. The article is then logged in a ledger listing its chronological number, description, date turned in, where it was found and identifying marks (person's name etc.) Whenever possible an effort is made to contact the owner. When a person comes in to claim an article, he must describe it in detail, giving the approximate date and place of loss. Next the brother on duty locates the article in the ledger by checking from the date lost to the present. If a proper description is located in the ledger, the article is located in the office by its number. The claimant then makes positive identification and signs the ledger opposite the entry. He includes his current address, phone number and the current date.

The claimant shows his identification card and takes possession of the article. He is never allowed to see the lost articles unless he can accurately describe them.

APO has Lost and Found deposit points in the offices of the major departments on campus. These are checked at least twice a week.

Accurate records of all articles turned in and claimed or sold are kept for two years to substantiate any late claims.

Any Chapter interested in further information may contact Iota Alpha Chapter at: Alpha Phi Omega, Box 8660 UT Station, Knoxville, Tennessee 37916.

Psi Xi Installed

PSI XI CHAPTER of Alpha Phi Omega, the Fraternity's 566th chapter, was installed at ALABAMA STATE UNIVERSITY, Montgomery Alabama on November 11, 1973.

Lt. Col. Lucius E. Young, National President, presented the charter. The ritual was performed by Brothers of Pi Zeta, Tuskegee Institute and Delta, Auburn University. Grealy Marshall serves as Chapter President and Dr. Harry Robinson, Jr. as Chairman of the Advisory Committee.
