Dear Brothers:

On this, Alpha Phi Omega's Golden Anniversary of Service to the college campuses of America, I am confident that you share with me the thrill in the accomplishments of our beloved Fraternity.

My hearty congratulations go to each of the more than 140,000 members who have had a part in developing and conducting the program of Alpha Phi Omega. The combined efforts of chapter officers, members, advisors, pledges and alumni, along with our dedicated National, Regional and Sectional volunteers have brought about the splendid successes of our Fraternity. In fifty years we have come to be recognized as a major force for the constructive building of a better life within our colleges and communities. The importance of our concepts have produced the largest Fraternity in the world, and inspired countless other organizations to follow our lead.

The first fifty years have provided a solid base for the future. The opportunity to prepare future generations for Service to humanity is ours, and that is a heavy responsibility. We are, I am certain, equal to the task, and our next half century will find us rising to new pinnacles of success.

Each of us must give his full measure to promote and develop Alpha Phi Omega. The future provides many great challenges, but, in Brotherhood, we can meet the test.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Lawrence L. Hirsch, M.D.

National President

Our Heritage

Alpha Phi Omega's history deals with men — a very special group of men — who hold certain beliefs in common and who share a common heritage.

This is about a service fraternity — a story about men of all faiths, of all races of men, who come from every part of these United States and it is the story of our common heritage.

OUR HERITAGE is in Pennsylvania, less than a decade after the close of the First World War. The interesting story of our founding, and of some of the events that followed, are found, in part in the Pledge Manual, and in different issues of Torch & Trefoil, but in no single source is the complete story to be found. Nor has it ever been presented more colorfully, or completely, or with more feeling, than as told by Brother Frank Reed Horton, Founder, First President of the Alpha Chapter and First National President.

It is the FIRST WORLD WAR. A young naval attorney stands in the courtroom listening as, one after another, there unfolds before his eyes, the sad story of American sailors who had gotten into trouble while on leave in a foreign port. For many of them, it means the loss of precious civil rights.

Listening to their stories, this Naval officer makes a firm resolution to himself:

"If I return alive to the United States, I will do my utmost to help young men get the right start in life, by holding up before them a "standard of manhood" that will withstand the test of time."

He also resolves to do all that he can to help the nations of the world settle their disputes by means other than war:

"I had been learning, at the Boston University Law School, how to help people settle their quarrels in a just and legal manner. Now I was thrown into a war, where nations were resolving their differences by killing each other. It all seemed so senseless. There must be a better way to resolve international differences."

THE WAR IS OVER. The former naval officer is now a student at Lafayette College in Easton, Pa. One evening, while attending an American Legion banquet, he got into a conversation with the man next to him at the dinner table — Herbert G. Horton. They were not related, but they became fast friends. Herbert Horton had been a naval officer in the late war, and was now the local executive of the Boy Scouts of America in the Easton, Pa., area. Out of their conversation, Frank Reed Horton became a Deputy Scout Commissioner. And because Herbert Horton told him of the crying need of a local group of boys for a Scoutmaster, Frank Horton became their leader. A classmate of Horton's, Everett W. Probst (Eagle Scout, Gold Palm), taught him much about Scouting. Eventually, Frank Horton became an associate camp counsellor in a nearby Boy Scout camp:

"Here I saw Jewish, Catholic, and Protestant boys living and playing together in a spirit of tolerance and harmony so uncommon with their elders."

Through this Scouting program, Frank Horton saw what he was seeking when, standing in the courts-martial room, he vowed to do something to help the young men of America:

"The Scout Oath and Law were what I had been seeking. Here was that "Standard of Manhood" that had stood the test of time. I discovered that those who had been Boy Scouts, or who were still Boy Scouts, had not gone wrong when temptations had beset them."

Back at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity house where he lived, Frank Horton did some deep thinking. He looked silently at the lives of his brothers there. Those who were outstanding for high ideals and clean living; those who were the respected leaders on the campus; those who were noted for their unselfish service to others, were all former Scouts.

"I felt that there ought to be a college organization which would follow on the heels, so to speak, of the Boy Scout movement; one which would continually strengthen men in the high ideals that they had learned as Scouts, so that when they went out into the world they would be fully prepared to meet, and withstand, the challenges and temptations which would constantly confront them."

At this same time, Frank Horton noted that a survey showed that, on a national basis, fifty per cent of the students then in college were former Scouts.

"This meant that Lafayette College, with 1,000 men, had five hundred who were former Scouts. It seemed to me that there should be some type of an organization in which these former Scouts could get together in college, pursue activities like they had done in Scouting, and form life-long friendships."

An idea had taken root in Horton's mind. A few days later he sat down and drew up the blueprint of a new Greek letter college fraternity, membership in which would be based upon prior Scouting association, and dedicated to the service of others. Other thoughts raced quickly through his mind as the organization took shape on the paper in front of him:

"This shall be an organization which will give its members an opportunity to demonstrate that they can, by deed, word, and action, lead others.

This shall be an organization in which former Scouts can get together and form and mold life-long friendships.

This shall be an organization where the members, working together, can render assistance where it is needed the most, in the spirit of the "good turn" and "troop community service."

Almost magically, these ideas took an unusual phrasing on the paper in front of him:

Be a Leader! Be a Friend! Be of Service!

Hardly had the ink dried on the paper before Horton showed his ideas to a group of SAE's whom he knew were former Scouts. "Would you men sign up as charter members of such a group?" he asked. Enthusiastically, each embraced this new fraternity, for this, too, was what they had been looking for in college.

Horton asked his friend, Everett Probst, if he would take the idea of this new fraternity to some of his Scouting brothers in the social fraternity of which he was a member. Probst belonged to a group known as the "Krescents" (now Kappa Delta Rho). Probst's Scouting brothers enthusiastically embraced it, too.

While this was being done, Horton, with the assistance of a member of the faculty, Professor Harry T. Spengler, talked to the administration, and secured their approval, and recognition, of this new fraternity based on service.

Fourteen men were obtained for the new fraternity. These men were our Founders:

Of the fourteen charter members, eight were members of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon social fraternity; five were from the "Krescents" social fraternity (now Kappa Delta Rho); and one, Lewis B. Blair, was an independent.

A first informal meeting of the charter members was called, and held, in a room at the SAE house. Other meetings were held in Everett Probst's room. Probst lived off-campus. Horton asked Probst to draw up the insignia, pin, key, and coat-of-arms for the new fraternity, since Probst had done this for the "Krescents." One day, while walking in the Colton Memorial Chapel, Probst happened to look up at one of the windows in the Chapel. It bore the coat-of-arms of Lafayette College. The sun's rays had hit it at just the right angle, illuminating its beauty. So inspired was Probst by what he saw that it became a model for the coat-of-arms for Alpha Phi Omega.

Thane S. Cooley suggested the hand-clasp. Frank Horton, because he was studying Greek, created the letters of the fraternity — Alpha Phi Omega. he also wrote the Ritual, and drew up the first Constitution and By-Laws.

At at subsequent meeting, all of these ideas, as well as that of the fraternity itself, were adopted.

The formal initiation ceremony, conducted by Frank Horton, took place on the afternoon of December 16, 1925, in a second floor room of Brainerd Hall, on the campus of Lafayette College, in Easton, Pa.

And so an idea, designed to help young men withstand the challenges and temptations of life, as well as providing them with opportunities for continued Leadership, Friendship and Service, bore fruition, and became a reality with the initiation of fourteen charter members.

Shortly after the first initiation ceremony, officers were chosen for the Alpha Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega. The president was Frank Reed Horton; Everett Probst became vice president; the secretary was Gordon M. Looney, and the treasurer was Thane S. Cooley. Later, six advisors were added to the Alpha Chapter, including four members of the Lafayette College faculty, one local Scouting official, and one national Scouting official. The four faculty members were: John H. MacCracken, President of Lafayette College; Donald B. Prentice, Dean of the College; and two professors, D. Arthur Hatch and Harry T. Spengler. Herbert G. Horton, the local Scout executive, became the local Scouting advisor, while Ray O. Wyland, the National Director of Education for the Boy Scouts of America, became the National Scouting Advisor.

Three problems were faced by the Alpha Chapter: first, should the Fraternity be secret or nonsecret? Because of possible religious objections by some of the members as to secrecy, it was decided that it should not be secret. Second, should the Fraternity be small, like an honorary one, or large with fifty or more members? It was decided to have it large with 100, or as many members as possible. Third, what should the Fraternity's main goal be? It was decided that this should be SERVICE.

The second initiation of the Alpha Chapter was held on the afternoon of May 20, 1926, in the same building. A banquet was held that evening at the Karldon Hotel, on Third Street, in downtown Easton. At the banquet, Dr. John H. MacCracken, President of Lafayette College, remarked to Dr. Ray O. Wyland that it was a very important day, since Commander Richard E. Byrd had just completed a flight over the North Pole that day. Dr. Wyland replied that, as important as this event was, that the college service Fraternity whose founding they were celebrating that night, might well be more far-reaching in its effects upon mankind. Time has certainly borne out his remarks.

Shortly thereafter, Frank Horton created a national organization for Alpha Phi Omega. Though really the National President from the inception of the Alpha Chapter on December 16, 1925, the national organization took legal form as of January 11, 1927, when the Beta Chapter was formed at the University of Pittsburgh. In addition to Horton, the other first national officers of the Fraternity were: National Vice President, Everett W. Probst; National Secretary, William T. Wood, and National Treasurer, Thane S. Cooley.

During his tenure of office as the first National President, Frank Reed Horton saw the name and insignia protected by the U.S. Patent Office, and aided the creation of seventeen additional chapters. When he went out of office in 1931, in favor of Dr. H. Roe Bartle of Kansas City, Mo., six additional chapters were in the process of petitioning for membership in Alpha Phi Omega.

Following the chartering of Beta Chapter at the University of Pittsburgh, three more chapters were chartered in 1927 — Gamma at Cornell University on February 17, Delta at Auburn University on November 8, and Epsilon at Northeast Missouri State University on December 13. And with the chartering of the sixth chapter — Zeta at Stanford University — on May 19, 1928, Alpha Phi Omega had spread from the East, to the South, to the Midwest, and all the way to the Pacific Coast in its first four years. The Fraternity has continued to grow during its 50 years, having chartered more chapters than any other collegiate organization.

In the very early years, decisions of the National Fraternity were made by mail. The first actual assembly of delegates in convention was in St. Louis, Mo., March 1 and 2, 1931. By that date the Fraternity had grown to 18 chapters. Seven of the chapters were represented at the convention by a total of 23 students and advisors.

Twenty-three biennial National Conventions have been held (two were skipped in 1942 and 1944 because of World War II) and one special Constitutional Convention was held in 1967.

Convention attendance has, of course, grown tremendously. The largest registration thus far was 1,628 at Washington, D. C., in 1968, and the largest number of chapters represented was 231 at Dallas, Texas, in 1970.

As Alpha Phi Omega grew, state conventions were held in many states. Later, with the establishment of Sections, Sectional Conferences became a very important part in our Fraternity operation, and more recently some of the Regions have held Regional Conferences. All of these meetings foster good fellowship and helpful exchange of ideas for the advancement of our service program.

The 1974 National Convention in St. Louis, Missouri was one of the Fraternity's most important, adopting legislation which allowed chapters to initiate women as affiliate members. Thus, in 1974, Alpha Phi Omega, for the first time, admitted women to its ranks.

This is the story behind the creation of Alpha Phi Omega. It is also the story of the beginning of the first chapter — the Alpha Chapter — at Lafayette College. It is also the story of the formation of the first national organization of the Fraternity. Above all, it is the story of the dreams of one man for an organization through which men might better the conditions of other men, as well as of themselves.

The history of Alpha Phi Omega then is a story of Leadership, Friendship and Service. Since the founding at Lafayette College in 1925, more than 140,000 men have participated in this nationwide Brotherhood. From a single chapter in 1925, this National Service Fraternity has grown to 577 chapters.

LAW EXAMINER

The founders of Alpha Phi Omega had the foresight to take legal steps to protect the name and insignia of the fraternity. Above is a replica of the original copyright issued by the United States Office.

Twenty years after the copyright was first established, the fraternity applied for and received a Certificate of Renewal. Thus the protection of our fraternity name and the design of our insignia continues for the future.

National Conventions

In recent years, National Conventions have attracted 1,200-1,500 Brothers. It is a once-in-a-lifetime experience for many. Nowhere in Alpha Phi Omega is the sense of Brotherhood as great or the fellowship as rich.

The assemblage of Brothers from all parts of the nation meets not only to decide the important issues of the day, but also to share their concepts of the Fraternity through informal gatherings and numerous parties held throughout the three-day meeting.

One feature that adds fun and excitement is the bidding by different cities to host the next Convention. This spirited rivalry is a highlight of the Convention.

Legislative sessions carefully consider all proposals, even if it means ending the Convention in the wee hours of the morning, as has happened in some cases.

Conventions inspire a strong rededication to the principles for which we stand. When you join more than a thousand of your Brothers in our Fellowship Circle, you know that you are an APO, and that indeed, we will always be.

Pictured here are the twenty-three delegates who represented seven chapters at the first convention of Alpha Phi Omega, held in St. Louis, Mo., March 1 and 2, 1931.

National Presidents

FRANK HORTON — 1925-1931. (See preceding Heritage section)

DR. H. ROE BARTLE — 1931-1946. Dr. H. Roe Bartle, affectionately known as "Chief," became affiliated with Alpha Phi Omega in 1929, as Founder and Scouting Advisor of Iota Chapter at Park College, Parkville, Mo. He was then Scout Executive of the Kansas City Area Council, and later served several years as President of Missouri Valley College. He served two terms as Mayor of Kansas City, Mo.

The Alpha Phi Omega Convention of 1931 elected this dynamic leader to succeed our Founder as the top officer of our Fraternity. He was repeatedly re-elected and served as National President until 1946, when, at his choosing, he relinquished this responsibility.

The Chief led our Fraternity in nationwide growth. He secured the endorsement of the National Council, Boy Scouts of America, and obtained the approval of college presidents and deans in all parts of the nation. Upon his recommendation, in 1932 Sidney B. North was employed as the first National Executive Secretary.

From 18 chapters in 1931, under his outstanding leadership, the Fraternity expanded to 109 campuses by 1946, an achievement all the more significant in view of the depression and World War II years.

He continued his active leadership in the Fraternity until his death in 1974.

DEAN ARNO NOWOTNY — 1946-1950. Dean Arno Nowotny, known as "Shorty," became affiliated with Alpha Phi Omega in Alpha Rho Chapter at the University of Texas in 1938. As Dean of Student Life at the University, he took great interest in the Fraternity, and was elected National President by the 1946 National Convention. He named state chairmen to expand Alpha Phi Omega, and sold more deans on the values and usefulness of the Fraternity. During his presidency, the number of chapters doubled from 109 to 227 and membership grew rapidly.

PROFESSOR DANIEL DEN UYL — 1950-1954. Professor Daniel Den Uyl was elected National President of Alpha Phi Omega in 1950. He brought to the national leadership a rich experience as advisor to Alpha Gamma Chapter at Purdue University. Wherever he traveled, whether on Scouting, university, or Fraternity business, he promoted Alpha Phi Omega through his friendliness and genuine interest in Service. He continued actively in his chapter and on the National Board of Directors until his death in 1961.

M. R. DISBOROUGH — 1954-1958. The 1954 National Convention elected M. R. Disborough as National President. Brother Disborough, who became affiliated with Alpha Phi Omega in 1936 as a charter member of Alpha Tau Chapter at Butler University, was the first undergraduate Brother to rise through the ranks to the Presidency.

Under his administration, a special emphasis was placed on the selection and appointment of Sectional Chairmen, a plan of organization which has continued and is in operation in the 50 Alpha Phi Omega Sections throughout the United States.

WILLIAM S. ROTH — 1958-1962. Elected National President by the 1958 National Convention, Bill Roth traveled widely, building morale, strengthening chapter programs, and pushing the expansion of Alpha Phi Omega. He originally became affiliated in 1949 as an active member of Rho Chapter at the University of North Carolina.

Among Brother Roth's accomplishments was the extension of Alpha Phi Omega to Alaska with the chartering of Nu Omega Chapter at the University of Alaska in 1962. In his first term as National President, Joseph Scanlon was appointed National Executive Director.

DR. LESTER R. STEIG — 1962-1964. Dr. Lester R. Steig, an outstanding administrator with the San Francisco Unified School District, was elected by the 1962 National Convention to serve as National President. Dr. Steig, who first joined Alpha Phi Omega in 1937 as an advisor to Alpha Lambda Chapter at North Dakota State University, applied his talents to expanding Alpha Phi Omega and made many friends for our Fraternity throughout his term of office. He has served in numerous capacities in youth leadership, both locally and nationally, and continues on the National Board of Directors.

DR. TOM T. GALT — 1964-1966. Dr. Tom T. Galt, known as "T square," was elected by the 1964 National Convention as Alpha Phi Omega's eighth National President. He first became affiliated in 1948 as an active member of Delta Kappa Chapter at Emory University, and has taken an ardent interest in our Fraternity through the years. In his tenure as National President, the sustaining membership program was inaugurated to obtain additional operating funds. National Service to chapters was expanded, and a long-range plan for growth and service was drafted.

E. ROSS FORMAN — 1966-1968. The 1966 National Convention selected E. Ross Forman of Philadelphia as National President. Ross first became a member of the Fraternity in 1948 as a charter member of Zeta Theta Chapter at Drexel University.

During his term a Constitutional Convention was held in 1967 at Norman, Okla., a new set of National By-Laws was adopted, and the Fraternity's incorporation moved to the state of Missouri. Leadership training sessions for Section Chairmen were inaugurated and held in Chicago, Atlanta, and at Yale University.

DR. GLEN T. NYGREEN — 1968-1970. Dr. Glen T. Nygreen became affiliated with Alpha Phi Omega as an advisor to Gamma Alpha Chapter at the University of Washington in 1947. Since that time he has maintained a keen interest in the activities and growth of our Fraternity.

Dr. Nygreen, who was elected by the 1968 National Convention, is a distinguished educator and leader in the field of student personnel, and his guidance resulted in many outstanding developments during his term of office.

AUBREY B. HAMILTON — 1970-1972. Aubrey B. Hamilton joined Alpha Phi Omega in 1936 as a charter member of Alpha Phi Chapter at Washington University in St. Louis. He was elected National President by the 1970 National Convention and served with distinction until his death in March of 1972.

Brother Hamilton, a prominent St. Louis attorney, developed the "Task Force" concept of study of areas of vital concern to Alpha Phi Omega. During his tenure, Joseph Scanlon retired and Roger A. Sherwood was appointed National Executive Director.

LUCIUS E. YOUNG, LTC, RET. — 1972-1974. Lucius E. Young came to Alpha Phi Omega as co-founder of Zeta Phi Chapter at Howard University. He succeeded to the Presidency on the death of Aubrey Hamilton in March of 1972. The 1972 National Convention elected him to a term in his own right.

Col. Young served his country as a military officer, a Professional Scouter and a Professor of Military Science at Howard. He traveled the country extensively, visiting many chapters and Sectional Conferences throughout his term of office.

LAWRENCE L. HIRSCH, M.D. — 1974-1976. Lawrence L. Hirsch, M.D., elected by the 1974 National Convention after 20 years on the National Board of Directors, brings to Alpha Phi Omega a multitude of fraternal experiences. Dr. Hirsch is a Professor and Chairman of the Department of Family Medicine at the Chicago Medical School. Dr. Hirsch was initiated into Beta Gamma Chapter at Central Y.M.C.A. College in Chicago in 1940.

He has an outstanding record of service to Scouting, serving on the Executive Board of the Chicago Area Council. He is a recipient of the Silver Beaver, the Silver Antelope and the Distinguished Eagle Award, three of Scouting's highest honors.

His leadership in the fraternity has long been recognized, and his administration has been most effective in embarking Alpha Phi Omega on its second half-century of Service.

Roster of Chapters

In the Fraternity's first half-century, 577 chapters have been chartered in colleges and universities throughout the nation. Petitioning groups currently exist on a number of campuses. # Publications of Alpha Phi Omega

In fifty years of progress, numerous publications have been developed for chapter use. "Everybody's Gotta Have a Gang", "The College Connection" and "Questions and Answers about Alpha Phi Omega" provide information to prospective new members. The Pledge Manual is studied by pledges in preparation for becoming active members. "Leadership" is a manual designed to facilitate chapter administration for chapter officers, advisors and committee chairmen. The Bulletin is a newsletter distributed to chapter leaders. The National By-Laws and Standard Chapter Articles of Association are the official governing documents of the Fraternity. "How to organize" outlines the steps necessary to the chartering of a new chapter. Torch and Trefoil, published four times a year, is the magazine for members, pledges, advisors, honorary members and life members, and is the principal medium of exchange of ideas about chapter service projects.

Service to . . .

Student Body and Faculty

Every chapter has its specialty in this field. Especially popular are Registration, Used Book Exchanges, and Campus Beautification projects.

TAPING FOR BLIND STUDENTS

Beta Sigma Brother, Texas Tech, tapes a lesson for a Blind student. In addition the chapter has purchased sophisticated equipment to enable blind students to read.

CAMPUS BEAUTIFICATION

Brothers from Kappa Xi Chapter, Xavier University, conduct a tree planting project to enhance the beauty of their campus.

BOOK EXCHANGE

A long-time project of many Alpha Phi Omega chapters is a book exchange for the students. One of the oldest in the country is conducted by Delta Chapter at Auburn University.

Service to . . .

Youth and Community

Service to youth takes many forms. Whether it is working to open a Scout Camp for the summer, a Scout swim program, providing leadership for handicapped youths or working on a community project, Alpha Phi Omega members do their best. Future community efforts will receive great benefit from the training APO members have in service projects.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Eta Sigma Brothers, Illinois College, display the result of their efforts in building a playground for a school in their community.

SCOUTING

Service to Scouting has long been a trademark of Alpha Phi Omega. Each winter Phi Epsilon, Maine Maritime Academy, conducts a Klondike Derby for Scouts from the Northeast.

HANDICAPPED CHILDREN

Chi Mu, Henry Ford Community College, conducts a Wheel Chair Marathon to raise funds for the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Service to . . .

The Nation

Chapters are consistently involved in worthy national programs, such as Blood Drives, the elimination of Architectural Barriers, fund raising drives for charities and the like. The Ugly Man on Campus project is a traditional fund raising program for many chapters.

ELIMINATION OF ARCHITECTURAL BARRIERS

In 1970, Phi Chapter, Syracuse University, proposed the Elimination of Architectural Barriers as a National Service Project. One of the founders of the project, Brian McLane, demonstrates a problem faced by handicapped students. Many chapters have since taken an active role in eliminating architectural barriers on their campuses and in their communities.

NATIONAL PARK PROJECT

Brothers from Section 4, Northern California, participate in an inter-chapter project to clean up a redwood grove in Yosemite National Park.

ST. JUDE'S HOSPITAL

Chi Zeta, Tennessee Tech, engages in an annual week-long wheel-barrow push to raise funds for St. Jude's Hospital. Their efforts generate more than $15,000 annually for the Hospital.

Service to . . .

Members

Service to members is inseparable from Leadership and Friendship in Alpha Phi Omega. Every Brother benefits, whether it's in securing new members, working on committee sessions at chapter or interchapter events, or expressing support for the National Fraternity through Life Membership or financial support.

FRATERNITY

Brothers from Tau Epsilon, University of Wisconsin - Platteville, proudly display Life Membership Certificates after all of the active members became Life Members of the Fraternity. Tau Epsilon was the first chapter to obtain the 100% Life Membership goal.

LEADERSHIP

RUSHING

Brothers from across the nation gather at the Alpha Phi Omega booth at the 1975 National Order of the Arrow Conclave, where Arrowmen were exposed to the benefits of Alpha Phi Omega membership.
